Library Expansion Project to Begin Next Week

Contracts Total $122,410

Board Puts OK On Program

Contracts totaling $122,410.71 for the enlarging and remodeling Mansfield's Public library were signed late yesterday by the library board. Work on the project is expected to start early next week.

Miss Lois MacKellar, head librarian, said the general contract for $89,726.71 was awarded to the Jacob Wolf Construction company of Mansfield.

Other contracts went to Dudley H. Seltzer of Shelby for electric equipment at $10,745; and to the Mansfield Plumbing and Heating company for the plumbing equipment at $21,939.

Working capital for the remodeling project includes $130,000 raised in two bond issues in the past four years in the city and approximately $5,000 which Miss MacKellar said had been built up in a building fund over a number of years.

Miss MacKellar said beginning of work on the project would depend upon the time needed to move the stacks from the circular book room to the rear of the library. She said she hoped to have the moving completed by the first of next week.

The circular room to the rear of the library will be enlarged. Another major change will be the transfer of the children's room to a first floor level.

A bid for an elevator for the building was shelved because of insufficient funds at this time, Miss MacKellar said.

Still needed for the completion of the project will be shelving for the enlarged rooms to the rear of the library and equipment for the children's room.

Crash Kills Two Drivers

BOWLING GREEN —(AP)—Two truck drivers were burned to death early today when their vehicles collided head-on and the gasoline tanks exploded.

Two other truck drivers were burned severly while attempting to rescue the victims.

The dead were Ray Hentges, 35, of Findlay, driving for the Square Deal Cartage company of Toledo, and Noah Moore, 36, of Knightstown, Ind., whose Commercial lines truck carried four new Cadillacs.

Severe burns were suffered by Russell Dolbey, 41, of Detroit, and James Kerr, 37, of Greenville Ind.

The state highway patrol said that Hentges apparently fell asleep at the wheel. His semi-trailer truck sideswiped Dolbey's truck, and then careened head-on into Moore's truck.

The Hintges and Moore trucks then overturned into a ditch, and the under-seat gasoline tanks exploded.

Machine Tool Strike Ended

CLEVELAND — (UP) — Workers began returning to the Warner and Swasey Machine Tool company today, ending the longest strike in the city's history.

The 184-day strike ended last night when members of the Independent International Association of Machinists union voted 621 to 143 to call off the walkput and leave all issues to be negotiated.

Some 200 workers returned to their jobs today and others were to be called back as rapidly as possible. Wages were the principal issue in the strike.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia —(UP)— Communist militiamen armed with tommy guns today subdued Catholic villages in central Czechoslovakia after they had rioted for four days because police tried to arrest their priest.

It's Good For Crops, Anyway

Don't complain about the heat we've been having the last two weeks. It's wonderful for corn.

Hot, humid weather stimulates the growth of corn and most garden crops. Some farmers say they can hear the corn growing on quiet nights, faint cracklings indicating the stalks and leaves are expanding.

But city dwellers won't be heartened by the weatherman's prediction today that the sticky weather is here for the rest of the week. Mansfielders are viewing the chance that it may extend over the Fourth of July week end with mixed feelings.

Yesterday's high recorded at Municipal airport was 89 degrees at 5 p. m., but the mercury promises to exceed that today.

The mercury yesterday soared to 97 in Toledo, 96 in Cleveland and 95 in Cincinnati—high for the year in each city, respectively.

Although there was no rain in Mansfield yesterday, rain, hail, wind and lightning caused estimated $50,000 damage at Martins Ferry and Wheeling, W. Va. Streets and sidewalks buckled under the impact of the rain, trees were blown down, power lines ripped, windows were blown out and a carnival was damaged extensively.

New England's drought continues to sear crops for the 36th day and the weather bureau said no rain is in sight.

A thundershower belt extended from eastern Oklahoma and Arkansas to the middle Atlantic states today. More showers over much of the east and middlewest yesterday gave farmers badly needed rain, but from the Atlantic to the Dakotas, weather forecasters looked for clear skies today.

The only place that was reported cooled off in the east was Washington, D. C. when the mercury dipped to 81 degrees yesterday.

Reds Seize Food Trucks

BERLIN — (UP) — Russian guards seized 11 West German food and supply trucks on the edge of Berlin today and forced some of the drivers to distribute their produce in the Soviet sector, American officials reported.

Charles A. Dix, U. S. transport chief in Berlin, said he was protesting to the Soviet military government against the seizure of the trucks.

The seizure was described by U. S. officials as a new attempt to impede traffic between West Germany and Berlin. It followed allied protests over the failure of the Russian-controlled railway administration to resume schedules.

Dix said the 11 trucks cleared the zonal border checkpoint at Helmstedt without trouble, only to be seized on the outskirts of Berlin. They were forced to take back roads to the Soviet sector of Berlin, he said, and there a number of drivers were told to distribute their supplies to the east Berliners.

Pension Backers Now In Politics

COLUMBUS—(INS)—The Townsend clubs opened their ninth annual convention today in Columbus with the formation of a new political party for oldsters as one of the big topics of conversation.

Dr. Francis E. Townsend, 82, founder and president of the 12,000 clubs, told newsmen: "We feel that by becoming a national party we can reach more people with our plan, and once we reach more people, the plan is sure to get adopted."

Cooties To Meet

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Business sessions of the 29th annual state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, its women's auxiliary and the Military Order of Cooties are to be conducted tonight in Cleveland.

Test Runs Made On Route 30-N

New 'Track' Selected For Soap Box Derby

Eighth annual News-Journal Soap Box Derby will be staged on Route 30-N west of the underpass on July 23.

The new site for the coaster race was chosen yesterday after Dick and Earl Jordan made a pair of test runs down the racing strip. The 900-foot strip was chosen to insure spectators a better view and to facilitate a faster run-off of the race.

The south lane of the new "Derby Downs" will be used for the races with the north lane used for returning winning cars to the top of the hill.

Dick Jordan, 1948 Mansfield champion, said that the new course is a trifle slower than the South Main street hill, where the race was staged last year, but "it will be all right for the races."

Sixty-five pound Earl piloted Dick's "orange and black" special in one of the trials. Earl is building a new car for the 1949 running of the "greatest amateur racing event in the world." Earl got a big thrill in driving his brother's racer. "I'm looking forward to the Derby," he said, "but I doubt if my car will be as fast as Dick's."

After the trials, Derby officials said that a ramp will be constructed to increase the speed of the coasters. Two cars will race at a time on the new course.

Deadline for entering the 1949 Derby has been set for Friday of this week. All a youngster has to do to "join up" is to register at the Brandenburg Chevrolet company, co-sponsor of the Mansfield Derby with the News-Journal.

More than $1,000 worth of prizes will be awarded the youthful contestants in the big race. The winner gets a four-day trip to the national finals in Akron Aug. 14.

Labor Fight Cools Down

Senate Approves Strike Injunctions

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The AFL asked today that the Senate kill the administration's labor bill, now amended to embrace the Taft-Hartley law's injunction powers.

★

WASHINGTON —(UP)— The Senate moved into the second phase of its debate on labor legislationntoday with administration forces acting as if they were ready to throw in the towel.

Gloom developed among supporters of the administration's Taft-Hartley repealer as a result of their stunning setback in their first big test yesterday.

By a scant two-vote margin, the Senate first rejected the administration's plan for killing the injunction as a weapon against national emergency strikes. Then it accepted Sen. Robert A. Taft's proposal for writing Taft-Hartley injunctions and plant seizure powers into the administration's new labor bill.

Taft then offered the second part of his two-package substitute for the administration bill. While the injunction issue may have been more spectacular, Taft's second amendment would have greater impact on the day-to-day operation of labor unions. It deals with such issues as the closed shop, injunctions against secondary boycotts, the scope of boycotts to be outlawed, damage suits against unions and union welfare funds.

Senate Democratic Leader Scott W. Lucas hoped for a vote on the second Taft amendment by tomorrow afternoon.

Attackers Slay Girl

CHICAGO —(UP) A nearly nude man drove up to a police station today with the body of a pretty, 17-year-old high school girl in his car and said he and the girl had been the victims of a mysterious attack by two men.

Arthur Marino, 27, his throat seared by some type of acid or alkali, ran into the station in suburban Riverdale and by gesturing directed the desk sergeant to his car.

The body of the girl, Joan Coward of Blue Island, Ill., was found in the back seat of the car. Police said her mouth and throat had been seared also.

Marino's throat was burned so severely he had to write notes to tell police his story. When he arrived at the station he was wearing shoes and had a towel wrapped around his hips. His clothes were found soaking wet in the car.

The girl was fully clothed except for shoes and stockings.

Home Owners Fight Gambling In Club

TOLEDO — (INS — Alleged gambling operations of the Benore club have been ordered stopped in Lucas county Common Pleas Court in Toledo. Judge John M. McCabe called a halt to the club's operations late yesterday by granting a temporary injunction asked for by Mr. and Mrs. George L. Widmer, land owners in the club area.

Quiz 'Hiker' In Slaying

PRESTONBURG, Ky.—(INS)—Kentucky state police today questioned a youthful hitchhiker in the brutal, bludgeon slaying of a pretty blonde high school cheerleader.

Attractive 17-year-old Muriel Baldridge, whose low-cut blue sundress was torn, was killed with five blows on the head with a sharp instrument minutes after she left a group of friends at a carnival.

Neighborhood Prestonburg businessmen have already subscribed more than $1,500 for apprehension of the killer who committed what the Floyd county coroner termed "the most fiendish crime that's ever happened in this county."

The coroner said the junior high school miss had not been criminally assaulted, but that there were signs of a violent struggle at the edge of a path leading from a bridge near the carnival to the girl's home. A bush had been torn out of the ground.

Youth Fatally Shot In Brawl At Dance

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Henry Yaczure, victim of a west side Cleveland shooting, died today in City hospital. Yaczure, 22, was wounded twice through the abdomen last night in what police described as the aftermath of a previous dance hall slugging match. Prior to his death he refused to discuss the shooting or to name his attacker.

King-Sized Baby

CANTON — (UP) — A 16-pound two ounce boy was born by caesarian operation last night to Mrs. William Mitchell, 36, Aultman hospital attaches announced today.

Lutz To Get Case Today

Police Continue Slaying Probe

Evidence in the slaying Monday night of Solomon W. Moore, 40, of 136½ North Adams street, will be presented to Prosecuting Attorney Harold Lutz sometime today, Police Chief J. Schwab said.

"We want to have our case complete before we take it to the prosecutor," Schwab said. "We don't want to discover we need more evidence and then have to re-open our investigation."

Police are holding a 39-year-old Miller street man as a suspect.

He was apprehended shortly after the victim was shot in the left chest with a .38 caliber revolver that is in police possession.

Police have declined to discuss the nature of their evidence against the suspect, but the shooting is said to have occurred following an argument between the two men in Moore's North Adams street apartment.

Unofficial sources say the argument started over a cigaret.

Officers Charles J. Letizia and Joseph Greving went to the Adams street address and found Moore alone in his apartment. They took a shotgun found in his rooms and told him to stay upstairs.

However, after the two police officers left the apartment, Moore went outside and was shot just a few feet from the rear door.

The death weapon was found in the yard at the next-door home.

Panic Follows Shanghai Raid

SHANGHAI — (INS) — Four-engined B-24 "Liberator" bombers, believed to be nationalist planes, staged a two-hour raid on Shanghai today, killing many persons and creating panic.

The planes, which appeared over the communist-held city at noon, concentrated their attack on the northern suburbs of the city, where thousands of Chinese live in mud huts.

It was the first raid on Shanghai by heavy bombers since the start of the Civil war.

The teeming seaport has been bombed five other times since the communists took over May 25, by smaller aircraft.

Panic-stricken refugees streamed from the area immediately after the bombs shattered their noon rest.

Argue For Death Penalty

Mansfield's Police Chief Jesse J. Schwab today joined the growing flood of police opposition to the bill to abolish the death penalty for murder in Ohio. The measure is now before the Senate judiciary committee.

"Passage of the bill would make a tendency for criminals to come to Ohio as a haven, because the worst they could get would be life imprisonment," Chief Schwab said.

Chief Schwab said he could see no reason to abolish the death penalty.

Citing the killing spree last summer of OSR escapers Robert Daniels and James C. West, Capt. William Murphy of the Columbus police department appealed to the senate committee to kill the bill.

He said the death penalty was "just deserts" for such men.

Meanwhile the bill appeared likely to die in the senate committee.

The committee first amended the bill, which passed the house by a 69-55 margin with 68 votes needed, to block paroles for anyone sentenced to 99 years imprisonment — the substitute for the electric chair in the bill.

Then the committee seemed to lose interest in the bill. Four times Chairman Howard Metzenbaum (D-Cleveland) called for a motion either to recommend the bill for passage or to kill it, and none of the committee members would make either motion. The hearing on the bill then was continued to next week.

Fire Razes Ice Plant

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH — (INS)—Fire of undertermined origin levelled the Utah Ice and Storage company's Salt Lake City plant and authorities estimated damage today at $-,160,000 in the blaze that raged for almost 12 hours.

At least nine firemen were overcome by smoke while fighting the blaze which broke out late yesterday. The fire had been mouldering for five hours and finally burst into open flame last night.

More than 150 fire fighters used extra equipment from nearby communities to curb the flames which destroyed the structure.

Plant officials said half a million pounds of candy and frozen poultry plus a quarter of a million cases of eggs were destroyed. The value of the candy and poultry was estimated at $650,000 and that of the eggs at $360,000.

Character Witnesses OK Chimps

CINCINNATI —(INS)— Three Cincinnati chimpanzees, more or less on trial, have friends in the long arm of the law.

Two city policemen, testifying at a $12,000 suit brought by a 79-year-old woman who claims one of the chimps bit her, came forth as character witnesses for the trio yesterday.

They said, in spite of Mrs. Anna Wagonlander's claim, the trained chimps "behaved properly at all times."

Mrs. Wagonlander is suing the Cincinnati zoo.

Burglary Attempt Reported By Firm

An attempted burglary of the Mansfield Building and Loan company sometime last night was reported to police at 9:15 a. m. today.

Robert Dirlam, secretary of the company told police someone attempted to enter the building through a barred rear basement window.

The bars held and entrance was not gained. Police are investigating.

Passage Seen By Nightfall

Seek Limit On Building Costs

WASHINGTON —(AP) — Republicans launched another major assault on President Truman's big housing bill today but administration Democrats confidently held to their forecast of victory by nightfall.

The GOP proposal would prevent the government from providing homes for low income families costing more than most people who house themselves can afford.

Rep. Halleck (R-Ind) said the administration bill would allow costs running as high as $12,000 to $15,000 per dwelling unit in publicly-owned housing with subsidized rents. He announced he would offer an amendment limiting the average cost to $8,465 per unit.

"Mr. Truman, in a letter to Speaker Rayburn," Halleck said, "was very indignant of what he said were the over estimates of unit costs. Mr. Truman said the average cost would be $8,465 per dwelling unit. In consequence, I plan to offer an amendment requiring that the average cost not exceed $8,465."

He said he has a two-fold objective:

1. To make sure that building expenses are as economical as possible; and 2. To prevent the federal government from financing publicly-owned dwelling units for low-income families of a type most people buying their own homes cannot afford.

Under the housing bill, the government would undertake slum clearance and public housing, and providing farm housing aids.

CLEAR BARRIER

Administration forces cleared a major barrier yesterday when the House killed 168 to 130 an amendment that would have prevented racial segregation in publicly-owned housing projects.

A tie vote narrowly defeated a "home rule" amendment that would have barred public housing in any city unless voters there first approved it in a referendum.

Rep. Boggs (D-La), presiding at the time, announced the vote as 132 to 132. He quickly added: "The chair votes no, and the amendment is defeated." (A tie would have killed it without his vote).

Administration forces then were defeated on two lesser amendments, one by Rep. Powell (D-NY) giving first priority for occupancy to publicly-owned housing to persons removed from their homes by slum clearance operations.

The other amendment adopted over administration objections was by Rep. Bennett (D-Fla). It would require hearings by local public housing authorities before they acquire land for slum clearance.

Dem Veteran Quits Post

NEW YORK — (AP) — Tired and ailing Robert F. Wagner, friend of labor and a fighting champion of Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal, has given up the U. S. Senate seat he held for nearly 23 years.

The 72-year-old Democrat resigned yesterday.

"My turn has come to step down," said the author of the Wagner Labor Relations law and many other New Deal measures.

Wagner said the "battle for human rights is never ended" and that he had confidence a "new generation will exercise power for the common good."

His only regret: "I cannot remain in the front line."

Wagner's resignation paved the way for Republican Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to appoint an interim successor to serve until the November elections. Then, the people will choose a senator to complete Wagner's fourth term which expires Jan. 3, 1951.

Dewey was expected to make an appointment shortly.

Color Line Halts Trip

Girl 'Governor' Finds Victory Bitter

COLUMBUS —(AP)— There's always a little bitter with the sweet.

And that's the way it was today for Miss Joan Rankin, 16-year-old governor of Buckeye Girls' state.

The attractive Negro girl from Cincinnati last week won a personal victory when she was elected chief executive of the girls' mock state government sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary.

Yesterday she was told she would not be sent to Washington as Ohio's representative to the auxiliary's Girls' Nation.

The auxiliary said it wanted to save her the "embarrassment posed by certain social discrimination in Washington."

"The board of Girls' State felt it only wise and kind to spare her that," Mrs. Leslie Merritt, head of BGS' educational program, said. Previously, Buckeye Girls' State always has sent its governor and another chosen representative to Washington for the national meeting.

Another group, however, took a different attitude.

The Ohio State Democratic league, representing some 10,000 Negro citizens of Ohio, called on the American Legion to fight the forces which would "embarrass" Joan if she went to Washington.

"We feel Miss Joan Rankin should go to Washington to represent Ohio at the Legion auxiliary's Girls' Nation," the League declared. "It seems that an organization as strong as the American Legion could do a great service for America and the cause of real American democracy by standing up and leading the fight to break down the barriers in the nation's capital.

"This is a challenge that every American Legion member in the nation must accept. We must all keep on guard to fight this cancer that is eating the heart and soul out of our great nation."

A league spokesman also reported a wire had been sent to President Truman urging him to use his influence in combating color barriers in Washington.

FFA Boys In Crawford Place High

State Judging Honors Result

BUCYRUS — Members of Future Farmers of America chapters at nearby Mt. Zion and Sulphur Springs rated high in state judging contests recently held at the state FFA convention in Columbus, Crawford county extension office members reported today.

Donald Long of Sulphur Springs, competing against 657 contestants, placed fourth in total points in the general livestock selection contest. He also rated second in Brown Swiss dairy heifers and fourth in grading slaughter cattle.

John Boudinot of Sulphur Springs finished eighth in total points in dairy cattle judging. Gilbert Boudinot, also of Sulphur Springs, received the highest score in culling laying hens. Richard Leuthold, a freshman at Mt. Zion, placed fifth in the Guernsey judging contest.

Team awards also were won by Crawford county representatives. Mt. Zion's dairy team, coached by Howard Jordan, placed 49th out of 233 teams. Team members were Dick Brooks, Richard Leuthold and Gerald Crissinger.

Sulphur Springs' general livestock team, coached by Robert Olymer, placed 12th in a list of 225 teams. The team was composed of Donald Long, Harold Steiger and John Boudinot.

A Sulphur Springs' poultry team, composed of Gilbert Boudinot, Walter Schimpf and David Shealy, placed 22nd among 63 teams.

Tiro and Lykens also entered teams at the convention

Two Teams Finish Round In Tie for Loop Lead

Ideal and Cigars Can Jumble League

The National Softball league standings were in more of a jumble than ever today as two teams finished the first half season in a deadlock and two others need only to win a postponed game to catch up.

Office Cafe and Westinghouse both wound up their first half activities with four victories and two defeats. Ideal Electric and D. & M. Cigar stores have a 3-2 record and one more game to play.

The Cafe team lost a chance to clinch the first half title when it fell before D. & M. Cigar, 5-3, yesterday. Westinghouse blasted 164th Fighter Squadron, 15-0, and Mansfield Tire took the measure of Lumbermens, 9-4. Ideal Electric was idle.

Ideal and D. & M. both have postponed games with Lumbermens to make up and can throw the first half into a four-way tie by winning. The games will be rescheduled by the softball commission, probably next week.

Don Gross and Fritz Vogel were the heroes in last night's games as they pitched D. and M. and Westinghouse to victory. Gross allowed only three hits and struck out ten men as he got the best of a mound battle with the Veteran Denny Berry.

Vogel did not walk a single man and gave up only four hits as he had a shutout all the way. In addition he collected three hits in five times at the plate.

9 Golf Stars In Drive Test

Nine of Mansfield's longest "wood-men" will compete in a golf driving contest at 8:30 p. m. today at the Richland driving range.

They will represent each of the three Mansfield golf clubs and the longest single ball hit by any of the competitors will win for his team. The teams will begin warming up about 7:45. During the contest each of the nine stars will drive three balls.

The teams: Westbrook, Bob Moorehead. Carl Wiseman and Jim Hegarty; Coolridge, Joe Mayer, Pete Thoma and Jim Musille and Possum Run, Bernie Mathias, Red Dillon and Ted Etzel. The last six all star in the News-Journal "A" league.

America's "4-most" Car

THERE'S a new kind of automobile in the world today . . . a car whose exclusive "step-down" design is causing the public to re-examine all its old ideas about automobile design . . . a car that's establishing a new measure of motor-car value!

Before you buy any car, we urge you to come for a Revelation Ride in the New Hudson . . . America's "4-most" Car!

1-MOST Beautiful! A low build is the basis for really modern beauty, and the New Hudson, thanks to "step-down" design, is the lowest car of all—yet there's full road clearance.

2-MOST Roomy! The most seating room, leg room to spare, amazing head room . . . the most comfort, as you ride ahead of rear wheels, within the base frame, down where riding is most smooth, most relaxing.

3-MOST Road-worthy! Hudson, with exclusive "step-down" design and recessed floor, achieves lowest center of gravity in any stock car. Result: the safest, most hug-the-road ride ever known—plus the advantages of unit body-and-frame construction.

4-MOST All-round Performance! Choice of high-compression Hudson Super-Six engine, America's most powerful Six, or the even more powerful Super-Eight. Center-Point Steering for easiest handling. Triple-Safe Brakes for utmost safety. Many more high-performance, low-upkeep features.

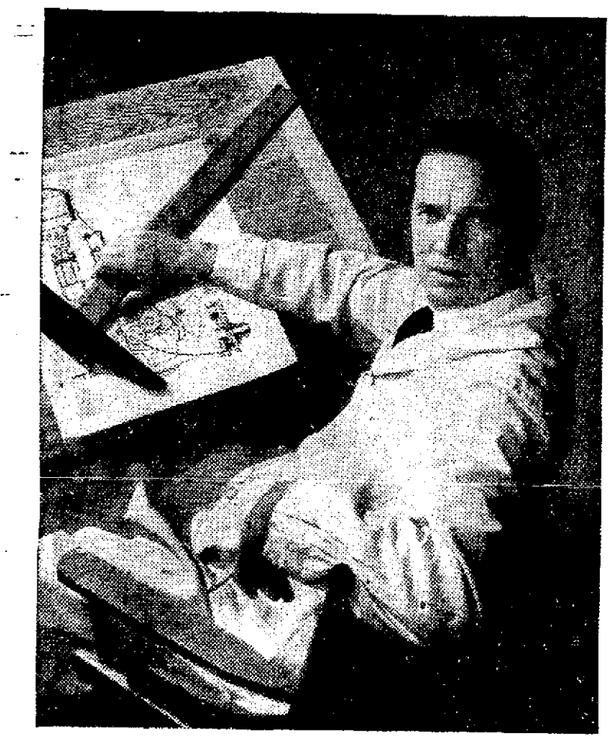
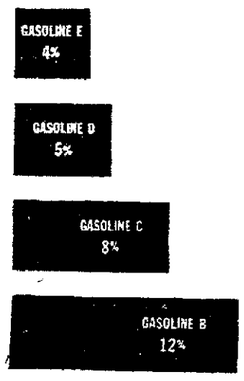
SUNOCO DYNAFUEL IS 4 TO 1
CHOICE OF AUTO ENGINEERS
Proved by this Detroit Gasoline Survey*



513 FOREMOST AUTOMOTIVE ENGINEERS in the Detroit area were asked what brand of gasoline they used in their own cars . . . and more said Sunoco Dynafuel than all other gasolines combined! To find out why Dynafuel is the 4 to 1 choice of men who know motors best . . . try just one tankful in your own car. Then judge for yourself.

FOR BEST RESULTS FROM YOUR CAR, don't dilute Sunoco Dynafuel with other gasolines. Wait until your tank is nearly empty and then fill up with Dynafuel . . . the gasoline that more auto engineers use in their own cars than all other gasolines combined. You'll get high-test performance . . . without paying premium price!



55% Prefer Sunoco Dynafuel!

*SURVEY WAS CONDUCTED by a nationally known, independent research company.

Names of 709 Engineers in Detroit area were obtained from roster of a leading automotive engineering society. Personal conversation interviews were completed with 513 engineers. The others were persons who had moved, did not own a car, or were otherwise unavailable for interviewing.

The question:—"What brand of gasoline do you ordinarily use in your car?"—gave them freedom to name any gasoline.

Of the 513 engineers interviewed, 282 or 55% said they used Sunoco Dynafuel . . . 4 to 1 over the next nearest gasoline.

(Miscellaneous brands, too small to show in chart at left, totalled 16%.)

'Cleopatra' Blasts 'Antony'

CHICAGO—(U.P.)—Mrs. Pauline Langton, blond New York divorcee, told yesterday how master "love" swindler Sigmund Engel wooed and won her, then disappeared with $50,000 of her jewelry after a kissless marriage.

"As far as I know, unfortunately I'm still married to the man," she said bitterly. "You can laugh at this, but I first knew him as Marc Antony and he called me Cleopatra. He said I looked like her."

Mrs. Langton, 39, flew here after a New York grand jury indicted Engel on a charge of having swindled her of the jewelry. She hoped to face him in jail and demand return of the jewelry after she talks to the state's attorney.

Engel has fleeced more than 50 women of an estimated $2,000,000 in the last four decades, but won't disclose how he disposed of the money.

4 Newborn Infants Die

LAKE WALES (UP) — An official investigation was under way today into the deaths of four newborn babies in three days at a hospital using diapers marked with bluish-purple ink.

The case may be given to a grand jury after laboratory samples of the ink, containing analine dye, are tested.

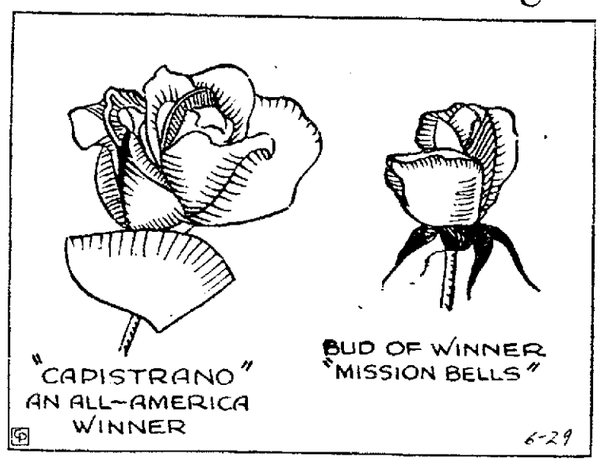
The journal of the American Medical association said that four doctors warned last month — after 63 cases and five deaths were reported — that analine dyes used by laundries to mark diapers could kill babies.

A fifth baby at the Lake Wales hospital was stricken by the mysterious malady that turns infants "a bluish color" but was reported in fair condition. It was given blood transfusions.

The AMA Journal quoted the doctors as saying the danger can be eliminated by boiling diapers after they are stamped and thoroughly drying them before use. The diapers used at the hospital here reported were not washed after marking.

Today's Garden Graph

Winners For Fall Planting



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(Central Press Association)

Four roses of distinction will hold places of honor in thousands of gardens next summer.

They are the All-American Rose Selections for 1950. Two of them, Capistrano and Mission Bells, are illustrated in the accompanying Garden-Graph. Two others, Fashion and Sutter's Gold, also won Oscars.

Capistrano is a rose-pink hybrid tea rose. It is vigorous and produces unusually large buds and flowers on extra long stems. The open flower sometimes reaches a full six inches across with 36 petals, heavily textured. It has a rich and heavy fragrance.

Capistrana makes a fine cut flower as a result of its excellent keeping qualities and unusually long stems. These stems are very stiff necked and the plant holds its large blooms up boldly at all times. Because of its great vigor the plant has proved very disease resistant.

It is named after the famous California mission, San Juan Capistrano, founded in 1776 and known in story and song for its swallows.

Mission Bells is a deep salmon pink hybrid tea rose opening to a clear shrimp pink color. It bears long buds, as illustrated. The full centered flowers often measure up to 5½ inches when opened. They retain their brilliant color and fine form for a long period. Mission Bells has a pleasing tea-scented fragrance.

This rose winner does well in all sections of the country, being extremely hardy. The color of the flower is much deeper in cool weather and does not fade.

Sitter Errs, Baby Killed

HAMMOND, IND. — (UP) — A mistake by a nine-year-old baby sitter brought death from a scalding bath to a 20-month-old girl and put the baby's twin brother in the hospital with dangerous burns, police said yesterday.

Carol Gora and her brother, Robert, were placed in the tub by Joan Farrell, a grade-school girl who had tended the twins often.

She sobbed as she told Police Sgt. Harold Petrie that she made a fatal mistake.

STORM LASHES CITY

WHEELING, W. Va. — (AP) — A rain and wind storm struck this Ohio River city last night, causing an estimated $50,000 damage. David Embry of the Embry Brothers carnival said an elaborate entranceway to the show lot, valued at $25,000, was blown down.

It's our family's whiskey, neighbor—and neighbor, it's your price!
Here's us trying on our fancy togs for the Centre Street parade this coming Monday.
Here with us Wilkens you're looking at Whitey Smith—him that heads up the brass band. And getting fitted into his Daniel Boone duds there, he's a party everybody calls "Cap." Our dog Jessie acts like she thinks Whitey's hat is an animal or something!
Harry E. Wilken
For big doings July 4th, our tasty recipe goes over with a bang!
It's the exact same whiskey as us distillers celebrate with. Yes sir—the exact same!
It's more than likely you'll be having a goodly number of your neighbors stopping by your house for a bit of celebrating this coming week end. And you'll be wanting something pretty special to serve up to them I guess. Well I just want to ask you something. Is there any way you could treat them more handsome than to pour out for one and all the selfsame whiskey as is enjoyed by us old-time distillers ourselves.
Us Wilkens were born and bred a family of distillers so to speak. Grandpa Wilken was turning out whiskey away back in '86. Pa Wilken—he took up distilling in the spring of '92. And ever since we was in long pants I guess, Pa schooled us in all the little ins and outs of making extra tasty whiskey.
Folks that knew for certain there couldn't be such an elegant whiskey at such a reasonable price, have sure changed their mind since they sampled Our Family's Recipe. Just you try it!

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Claims World Has Outgrown 'Cold War'

In Moscow and in the western capitals there is agreement that the tension has become relaxed though none of the great issues of the conflict has been settled. What has happened?

According to "Pravda" the tension has become relaxed because of (1) "The people's peace movement throughout the world," which is pushed by the Soviet Union, (2) the proposals advanced by the Soviet Union, (3) the sharpening of world economic difficulties.

According to the Western briefings the tension has become relaxed because of (1) the people's liberation movements against Soviet tyranny, (2) the successful policies of the western governments, and (3) the sharpening of economic difficulties in the Soviet orbit.

A student of history, who has examined the course and the outcome of other cold wars between powers that have irreconcilable ideologies might, I venture to think, suggest a rather different explanation. It would be that in these cold wars there comes a time when, though the conflict is unsettled, the world has outgrown it. Events develop and new forces appear. They burst the stereotyped formulae of the cold warriors.

They confound both their hopes and their fears, and present situations which are novel and different. The old codgers go on munching their chestnuts and arguing about the latest dispatches from the Battle of Bull Run.

Something of that sort has, I strongly suspect, been happening for some fairly considerable time and is the underlying reason why at Paris nobody wanted to quarrel very much or to settle very much.

The course of events in Europe, in Asia, and throughout the world has developed in ways which make many of the stereotyped formulae of the comflict not merely irreconcilable but irrelevant.

They have become irrelevant because, over increasingly large areas of the globe and for more and more people, what M. Vishinsky and Mr. Acheson might conceivably agree upon, is no longer decisive, and not necessarily even very influential.

In the last analysis it is, it seems to me, because the power of the big four to shape events is contracting, that the tension between them is relaxing.

It is their diminishing control over Germany, over Eastern Europe, over Japan, over China, over Southeast Asia, over the Middle East which explains why they are no longer trying very sincerely to settle and are no longer disposed very fiercely to quarrel.

The realization has reached the inner councils on both sides that they can no longer expect to decide the future in these contested areas, no matter who "won" the cold war.

Loses Right To Drive Car

George M. O'Brien, of 236 Richland avenue, Tuesday, was fined $75 and costs and his right to drive was suspended for six months, when he admitted driving his car while under the influence of alcohol.

Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler said O'Brien would be permitted to drive his car for business purposes.

George D. Rogers, of Millsboro road, was fined $10 and costs for failing to yield the right-of-way to another car.

Court Orders New Trial

BUCYRUS — A new trial has been ordered by the Third District Court of Appeals at Lima in the $50,000 action for damages of Robert T. Comstock, Mansfield, against the Galion-Mansfield Transit company, Court Clerk Joe M. Royer was informed today.

The appellate court ruled the local court erred in the conduct of the original trial here last January when a jury returned a directed verdict for the defendant bus company.

Comstock alleged he was assaulted and severely injured by a company bus driver, Elza Murphy, when he attempted to board a bus in Mansfield on Feb. 21, 1948.

The higher court ruled the Crawford county court erred in refusing the plaintiff leave to amend his petition during his original trial. The court also stated the county court failed to weigh sufficiently the evidence in sustaining the defense motion for a directed verdict.

Remains of stone-age cakes, made of coarsely-ground grain, were found in the Swiss lake-dwellings.

Return Body Of Soldier

The body of T/Sgt. John Alfred Greene, former Mansfield resident who was killed in action in Italy on March 5, 1945, has been returned and buried in Canada, Mansfield relatives were informed.

Sgt. Greene, prior to his induction, resided on Parkway drive and was district manager of the National Life Insurance company here. Services were held June 22 in St. John's church in Richmond Hill, Ont., near Toronto, and burial was in the Catholic cemetery at nearby Thorn Hill, Ont.

Surviving are his widow, Dolores of Columbus; two daughters, Mary Ellen and Lillian; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Greene of Richmond Hill; and a sister, Mrs. Burton Keyser of Toronto. Mansfield relatives include his mother-in-law, Mrs. Serathon A. Swint, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary K. Swint, both of 104 Sherman avenue.

Tempers Boil Over In Perjury Trial

Prosecutor Angered By Alger Hiss

Calls Defendant 'This Character'

NEW YORK — (INS) — Tempers became ragged at the Alger Hiss perjury trial yesterday when Prosecutor Thomas F. Murphy, in cross examining Hiss, referred to him as "this character" and shouted he didn't want any more back talk.

Lloyd Pual Stryker, chief counsel for the defense, became incensed. He said if it weren't for the fact he didn't want a mistrial he would move for one.

This outburst in the courtroom followed another one — minutes before — during which Murphy and Stryker were on their feet hurling accusations against each other.

Hiss, sitting cross - legged in the witness chair, remained cool throughout the verbal exchanges.

Murphy wanted to know whether statements he had been reading from the record were not true. He demanded a "yes" or "no" reply.

"You're characterizing my testimony," Hiss parried. "Why don't you read exactly what I said?"

Murphy, his temper frayed by consistent btushes with the imperturbable Hiss, pointed to the defendant and demanded of Judge Samuel H. Kaufman that he "tell this character not to make any remarks to me."

Throughout his interrogation, Murphy has addressed Hiss as "Mr. Witness," never as "Mr. Hiss."

Stryker, his normally ruddy face flushed to an ever deeper red, angrily characterized Murphy's remark as "offensive."

Judge Kaufman, as calm as Hiss, quickly took control. He admonished the lawyers to take it easy. He announced the incident was closed and told the jury to "disregard the implications."

THAT'S THE MAN!—An attitude of raillery is assumed by Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, 39 (seated), and her two daughters in Chicago police headquarters toward arch "love pirate" and swindler Sigmund Engel (left) after her first rush at him with shouts of "You thing! You thing, you!" Engel, 80, admitted taking $5,000 from her after promising marriage. He was trapped in a luggage store with another victim, making purchases for a presumably mythical honeymoon. Mrs. Corrigan's daughters, both pointing, are Reseda, jr., 19, (left), and Orpha, 17.

Girl Bike Rider Hurt

Cycle Collides With Car In City

An 11-year-old girl was injured when her bicycle collided with an automobile yesterday afternoon on West Dickson avenue.

Frances Schafer, 11 of 272 Dickson avenue, suffered a cut on the right arm and a bump on the head, when her bike collided with the side of a car driven by Mrs. Rose Frazee, of 212 West Dickson avenue. The child was treated by a physician.

The girl told police she turned her bike into the driveway at the rear of 250 West Third street, and then turned back onto the street without looking.

Given Data On Judging

Activities for 4-H dairy project members were announced today by County Agent C. N. McGrew. Leading off after the dairy judging instruction at Willeben farm, Lexington, today will be a district dairy judging tour July 13.

C. D. McGrew, dairy specialist from Ohio State university, will give the instruction.

On Aug. 12, 4-H members will perform the judging for the dairy day activities at Wooster.

The agent said 4-H members planning to enter the dairy judging contest at the Ohio State fair, Aug. 27, should participate in all the training meetings provided.

GOP Leader Quits Post

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Vice Chairman Thomas E. Coleman quit the Republican strategy committee yesterday with a blast at GOP National Chairman Hugh D.Scott jr., for failure to keep the group "moving along."

Coleman, Wisconsin Republican finance chairman, wrote Scott he no longer can "spend the time or take the responsibility for a committee that is not moving along."

"The responsibility must be yours," the vice chairman said.

Coleman's step was a blow to party "harmony" that Scott has been publicly stressing since he won a 54 to 50 vote of confidence and kept his job at a January meeting of the GOP National committee in Omaha.

The 23-member strategy committee, which Scott heads, was formed at Omaha. It grew out of agreement that the party needed new machinery to put over its viewpoint.

Meets Swindler, Then Drops Dead

XENIA — (INS) — A 70-year-old Hillsboro widwo, Mrs. S. P. Ferguson confronted by the man who allegedly swindled her out of almost a thousand dollars, dropped dead outside of Greene county courtroom late Monday.

Raymond Gill, 32, of Wabash, Ind., is already on trial on a larceny by trick indictment for allegedly swindling a Jamestown widow out of $1,000 the same way — by contracting for a termite extermination job which was not performed.

3 Cows Die After Licking Paint Buckets

Death of three head of livestock on a farm southwest of Lexington has been attributed to paint residues in cans thrown in the pasture, sheriff's deputies said today.

William Hirth, owner of the livestock, who lives four miles southwest of Lexington, said three of his cows died after licking the paint buckets thrown in one of the pastures. Hirth added that trash also was dumped in the pasture.

Deputies said the new law regarding the dumping of trash on property in the country and contained in Section 15 of the Ohio Code, carries a $50 fine or 30 days in the county jail or both.

GUNMAN BAMBOOZLED

CHICAGO —(UP)— Bogus tears, turned on when a gunman demanded her money, not only saved Mrs. Josephine Halper a few dollars but earned her another one—from the gunman's pocket. Mrs. Halper found the bandit in her kitchen. She began to cry. She told him she was broke and "starving". He lowered his gun, fished a dollar from his pocket, threw it on the kitchen table and ran out the back door.

Club Plans Its Program

Outlining of plans for the coming year highlighted the Rotary club meeting held Tuesday noon at the Mansfield-Leland hotel, with Glenn L. Bierly, incoming president, presiding.

Various phases of Rotary club activities were discussed by committee chairmen, Dr. William R. Riester speaking for the club service committee; William R. Kuhn for vocational service, and Fred B. Hout for international service.

Announcement was also made of appointments to all club committees for the year starting July 1.

Earl Kochheiser and John Smucker were received into the club as new members, with welcome extended by M. Dale Ward.

Muny Court Bill Gets Committee Nod, Nears Passage

Full House Approval Required

Measure Sets Up Nine New Courts

COLUMBUS — (AP) — One last river to cross was all that remained today in the path of a Senate - approved bill to enact a uniform municipal court bill for the 48 city courts in Ohio.

The House Judiciary committee, by a 15 - 0 vote, recommended the bill for passage after extensive amendments. The bill already has passed the senate by a 26 - 3 vote.

The stream - lining bill now sets up the rules governing the operation of 39 established city courts and nine new municipal courts. The present courts now act under separate statutes, with considerable confusion between courts of nearby municipalities.

As the bill now stands, the court of Sidney was added and the court of Euclid was eliminated. Thus the nine new courts are Ashland, Cambridge, Coshocton, Delaware, Greenville, Lancaster, Mt. Vernon, Sidney and Washington C. H.

The jurisdiction of the Cleveland and Cincinnati courts was extended by the committee to include the entire counties of Cuyahoga and Hamilton with a few exceptions.

The committee also increased the jurisdiction of the courts to include civil matters ranging to $2,000. The previous limit was $1,500, except for the Cleveland court, which can hear cases up to $5,000.

The bill, drafted by the Ohio Bureau of Code Revision, would consolidate the 1,874 sections of the Ohio law under which city courts now operate into the 38 sections of the new bill.

In the future, when a new court is desired, it can be established by a short amendment to the bill, instead of requiring the enactment of a whole new measure.

The bill, by extending the jurisdiction of some courts, wipes out justice of the peace courts in the newly - covered areas.

Witnesses At Red Hearing Hide Behind Constitution

WASHINGTON—(INS)—Three witnesses before House spy hunters yesterday refused to answer on grounds of possible self-incrimination questions regarding communist activities in the nation's capital.

The witnesses were called at the opening of the House un-American Activities committee's investigation into the communist party branch in Washington.

The three refused to tell whether they ever belonged to the party, gave or recieved contributions, and whether they were ever active in establishing a "white collar" unit to attract government workers.

The defiant witnesses were Mrs. Charlotte Oram, a 33-year-old secretary; Mrs. Rose Anderson, a 59-year-old drug store owner, and Mrs. Bella Rodman, 47-year-old former social worker.

Mrs. Rodman told the committee that she had contributed "several thousand dollars" to the Southern Conference of Human Welfare and was a member of the Progressive party. But she refused to answer any questions pertaining to communist activity.

The Southern Conference of Human Welfare was accused of being a "communist-front" in a committee report issued last session.

Mrs. Anderson refused to answer almost every question asked her. The Russian-born witness, however, submitted a statement in which she compared the present day happenings to "pogroms" of the Jews in Czarist Russia.

4 Honor Camp Escapers Back

All four of the Mansfield reformatory fugitives who escaped the Osborn state honor farm on Sunday, were back in custody today.

Surrendering to authorities yesterday in Sandusky were John W. Litscomb, 23, of Preble county, sentenced for burglary, and Clifford Elswick, 25, of Lawrence county, sentenced for cutting with intent to wound. They were the last two of the four who broke away.

Captured earlier were Denver Keeny, 20, of Hancock county and Robert Priser, 22, of Montgomery county. Both were sentenced for breaking and entering.

AEC Bares Cost Slash

WASHINGTON —(INS)—The Atomic Energy commission said yesterday it has saved taxpayers 22 million dollars since Jan. 1, 1947 by a 50 per cent cut in the cost of producing Uranium-235 at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

The AEC said that it had cut the unit cost of producing U-235 despite a 23 per cent increase in labor costs during the same period.

The announcement was made in a news release distributed during a hearing of the Senate-House Atomic committee at which Sen. Hickenlooper (R) Iowa, pressed charges of AEC waste against Chairman David Lilienthal.

Meanwhile the Flanders bill to shackle the nation's atomic striking power until another country drops the first bomb in a future war headed for a committee pigeonhole.

Senate Upholds Taft Views

OHIO'S Senator Robert A. Taft again looms large among the nation's statesmen as a result of the leadership which he displayed yesterday in directing the Senate's course toward inclusion of sound principles in a labor bill which is intended as a substitute for the present Taft-Hartley law.

While President Truman has stood stubbornly for total repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, against which he campaigned so strongly last fall, it has been obvious that majorities in House and Senate favored some amendments to the law but wished to retain many of its provisions, and it is this that is now being worked toward.

Except for the labor leadership that seeks preferential treatment, as was given under the old Wagner law, there has been no appearance of opposition to enactment of a fair labor law which shows due regard for the public interest.

Under amendments proposed yesterday by Senator Taft, and given Senate approval by a vote of 50 to 40, safeguards are provided against national emergency strikes which would affect public health and safety.

These safeguards would authorize government seizure of a struck plant and would also permit issuance of injunctions against certain types of strikes—a restraint which has been bitterly opposed by President Truman and his minority supporters.

As the amended labor bill continues through Congress and to the President's desk, there will be uncertainty as to the outcome. Belief is expressed that President Truman will veto whatever measure is passed by Senate and House, in which case the Taft-Hartley Act will remain in force. In any event it is now quite clear that the principal protective features of the present labor law will be retained—for which Senator Taft is entitled to much credit.

Are Rent Controls Needed Here?

WHETHER or not there is justification for continuance of rent controls in the Mansfield area is now being studied, with a field representative of the Cleveland office of the housing administration here to make a survey.

Present operation of rent controls is such that considerable more latitude is given in raising rents to a fair figure, based on investment, improvements and maintenance costs.

This would seem to solve the problem of property owners who had previously been held to extremely low rentals and continuance of controls would also prevent exorbitant jumps in rent—such as have been experienced in some instances where controls were removed.

There is at least an occasional revelation of inordinate greed on the part of a landlord in fixing monthly rental at double—or more—a reasonable amount, and it is in such cases that restraint appears necessary.

Controlled rental income, plus distressingly high repair costs, have combined to discourage proper upkeep of many properties, and under new regulations local rent control officials are permitted to recognize present material costs and wage rates in sanctioning requested rent increases based on repair and improvement costs.

It is quite apparent that supply has not yet caught up with demand for residential property in the moderate price range—either for purchase or rental—and until such a balance is attained tenants appear entitled to at least moderate protection against the excessive greed evidenced by the small percentage of landlords who are inclined to base rental charges on demand rather than value.

Warning Sounded, 'Danger Ahead!'

WHILE the danger of being injured or killed by explosives during Fourth of July observance has been greatly reduced in recent years, motor vehicles have more than offset the gain, and the approaching holiday week-end is being looked toward with dread by organizations which devote attention to safety.

The Ohio Safety Council reminds that the Fourth of July holiday—extending from Saturday through Monday—will bring one of the most dangerous week-ends of the year, and warns: "Take it easy on the Fourth—be alive on the Fifth."

It is pointed out that motor vehicle accidents lead the list of holiday hazards, with drowning from swimming and fishing accidents in second place. Fireworks and firearms, sunstroke and heat exhaustion, food poisoning, falls and miscellaneous accidents are also listed as likely causes of holiday deaths.

It is estimated that more than 33 million motor vehicles will be on the move in this country during the holiday period, a calculation based on the increasing number of new cars and a substantial rise in gasoline consumption.

So, if you are preparing for a motor trip over the week-end—or even planning to take a little drive in city or vicinity—don't disregard the added dangers of crowded streets and highways. And make a special effort to impress this on youthful drivers.

It appears that the camel has a bad temper, with frequent fits of anger and rage, and that its personal habits are so bad that it has few friends, even among other camels—the same traits, in fact, that appear in some people . . . but not many, fortunately.

Harry Wade explains that: "Despite anything you hear that might suggest the contrary, there actually is no such thing as Republican uranium or a Democratic atom."

After much study, Columbia university has decided that children bring more joy than grief—with allowance for an occasional exception, perhaps.

What Some Other People Are Saying

Veterans Will Get Insurance Surplus

THERE is pleasant and unexpected news for 16,000,000 holders of veterans' life insurance policies in a $2,800,000,000 bonus, to be paid during the first half of next year. This will mean an average payment to holders of from $150 to $170.

A significant statement was made in Washington that these checks will be in the hands of the veterans some months before election.

* * *

The pleasant part of this payment, as far as the government is concerned, is that it does not have to be covered by new taxes or borrowing. It originates in the insurance accounts built up between 1941 and 1948 by and for the members of the armed forces in the late war.

Part was paid by the veterans: part by the federal government. The war losses proved to be much less than were anticipated in the financial plans for the insurance. Hence, this great accumulation of funds in the war years.

Since 1946, this "dividend" originated as it does in all life insurance—mainly from savings made by lower mortality than was originally figured by the actuaries.

It is clear that all this money could not be paid if the government should withhold the $700,000,000 a year which is its contribution. It would be more economical, of course, to withhold that sum and to forego payments by veterans for a period.

But the golden opportunity to pay a dividend during an election year and also to use the payment to halt deflation could not be overlooked, either by the administration or by Congress.

The economic effect will be inflationary to a degree. How much, will depend upon the extent of deflation next year.

* * *

Conditions Different.

EXPERIENCE has shown that a bonus has a noteworthy effect upon the business cycle. In 1936, a bonus of about $2,000,000,000 was paid, and business improved especially around election time. But that payment came when the national income was only about a third of what it is now.

An equivalent stimulus now would require twice the amount which will be paid next year. It may be that a greater proportion of this new bonus will be saved than was the case in 1936. For there is relatively less unemployment now, and we have just been through a long period of prosperity. The 1936 bonus came to people who had been through a long depression

On the political side—and it would be absurd to suppose that this has not been considered—the pattern followed by Roosevelt in 1935 and 1936 has been adopted.

In 1935, Roosevelt not only vetoed the bonus but took pains to make it an issue with Congress. He literally drove his followers to support him. In 1936 he vetoed it again, but did little to prevent Congress from overriding the veto.

He calculated that the gratitude of recipients would be less lively after a year than after a few months. He also believed that a business lift was better timed in an election year.

The outcome of those calculations was altogether favorable to the party in power. That, no doubt, provided the inspiration for the present move.

Pressure On a Prisoner

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court has told American cops to do a real detective job instead of trying to pressure a suspect into making a confession against himself.

The pressure doesn't necessarily mean beating a prisoner. It may mean talking to him so long—(How long wasn't made clear by the court)—that he finally caves in and confesses.

But how long then do cops have a right to question a prisoner without depriving him of his constitutional rights, rights which the court wants protected?

One minute? One hour? One day? Two days? Five days? The court did not say precisely.

So police undoubtedly will still use their own judgment about holding a man indefinitely, questioning him in relays to get a confession, and then using it to get him convicted and sentenced to jail or death.

When that happens, though, and the convicted man appeals to the Supreme Court, there's a good chance the court will rule in his favor and throw out his confession and the conviction which followed it.

Future decisions of the court can't be predicted, of course, but that's how the court acted in the case of three Negroes, all found guilty of murder: one in Pennsylvania, one in Indiana, and one in South Carolina.

In each case the men were grabbed as suspects by police, questioned by them in relays for days. None was beaten. All three confessed. All three were convicted.

Until he had confessed, none of the men was allowed to see friends or a lawyer, and none was told he had a constitutional right not to say anything which might later be used against him.

* * *

Mental Torture.

IN ALL three cases the Supreme Court upset the conviction and ruled the men had been deprived of their constitutional right of "due process" of law.

Which means it was contrary to the constitution to hold them so long for questioning before letting them see a lawyer—who would have told them not to confess — or before charging them.

Said the court: "There is a torture of the mind as well as of the body. The will is as much affected by fear as by force . . . A confession (which) is the product of sustained pressure by the police . . . does not issue from a free choice."

In other words, the court said, the men had not really made a voluntary confession. The court went on:

"Ours is the accusatorial as opposed to the inquisitorial system . . . Under our system society carries the burden of proving its charge against the accused, not out of his own mouth. It must establish its case, not by interrogation of the accused even under judicial safeguards, but by evidence independently secured through skillful investigation."

In a separate, agreeing opinion, Justice Douglas said "This is another illustration of the use by the police of the custody of an accused to wring a confession from him. The confession so obtained from literate and illiterate alike should stand condemned."

But Justic Jackson, referring to the various safeguards citizens have under the Constitution, said:

"I doubt very much if they require us to hold that the state may not take into custody and question one suspected reasonably of an unwitnessed murder.

"If it does, the poeple of this country must discipline themselves to seeing their police stand by helplessly while those suspected of murder prowl about unmolested. Is it a necessary price to pay for the fairness which we know as "due process of law?"

Still left unanswered after all the justices' long and careful legal wording was the question: How long should police be able to question a suspect to get a confession out of him?

The court spoke only of "protracted, systematic and uncontrolled subjection of an accused" to police questioning. It didn't mention time in minutes, hours or days.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Asks 'Roadblocks' To Avoid Depression

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Truman discussed plans for fortifying the nation's economy against depression in a recent off - the - record talk with six Democratic senators and congressmen.

Only a meager announcement leaked out to the press, but here are the highlights of what happened. A program of "economic expansion" was proposed that may affect the future of every American.

President Truman greeted the congressional group by saying:

"I think I am way ahead of you on this."

Then he pulled several charts out of his top, right - hand drawer showing the latest national statistics on prices, wages, profits and production up to the end of May.

He admitted that the first symptoms of depression are beginning to show and agreed that the best plan is to attack any "mild break" in the economy to stop it from spreading. He stressed, however, that he is not worried about depression — as long as each problem is met before it grows into a crisis.

* * *

Factory Loans.

THE legislators who called on the President were Senators James Murray of Montana, Elbert Thomas of Utah, John Sparkman of Alabama, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, Congressman Andy Biemiller of Wisconsin and Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas of California — all Democrats.

At the top of the five - point "economic expansion" program they urged on Truman was promotion of private investment and production by offering FHA-type loans to build plants. Private enterprise, they agreed, is the key to a healthy economy. The legislators also recommended:

1. A national advisory board, combining the business, labor, agriculture and consumer committees that now exist separately;

2. Measures to deal directly with serious unemployment wherever and whenever it develops;

3. Long - range planning for public works and resource development;

4. Voluntary adjustments in purchasing power.

Truman said he couldn't endorse the program without studying the details, but remarked: "You are my kind of folks."

Their kind of thinking, he added, had always coincided with his own. It had been his belief and policy to ease off inflation controls gradually and give the economy a chance to adjust itself.

But the G.O.P.-controlled 80th Congress scrapped all controls at once, let prices and profits soar unchecked; then, as a last straw, passed a "rich man's" tax bill.

"That was no time for a rich-man's tax bill — when profits were at their highest," Truman shook his head.

The inevitable result was "economic dislocation," the President declared. From such dizzy heights, it would only be natural for prices, profits, wages and production to come crashing down.

Therefore, he said, the government must throw roadblocks in the way to prevent stampeding the economy into depression. If the public doesn't get panicky, Truman added, there is no danger of depression.

* * *

Merry-No-Round

A GROUP of Iowa editors held a private confab between meetings of the Des Moines Democratic farm meeting. They agreed Senator Hickenlooper is making a bad impression among the home folks, because of his reckless attacks upon atomic energy chief David Lilienthal . . . General Eisenhower's strange opposition to federal aid to education is attributed to the influence of Ike's good friend, Tom Watson of International Business Machines. Ike's opposition has also convinced a lot of educators that the general was right when he once indicated that he knows a lot more about war than the peacetime needs of the nation . . . Secretary of State Acheson and Under-Secretary Webb are shopping around for summer cottages not far from the spot where the Wright brothers flew their first airplane at Kitty Hawk, N. C. . . . Veterans of Foreign Wars chiefs are going to be plenty miffed at President Truman if he doesn't attend their annual convention in Miami in late August. Truman turned down an invitation to last year's VFW meeting on the ground he might be criticized for making a political talk to the vets during the campaign, but despite this he attended the American Legion convention.

* * *

Acheson Reports.

ONE important point that didn't leak out of Secretary Acheson's hush - hush report to the Senate foreign relations committee was regarding his smooth relations between the western powers.

Acheson reported that the British and French were more reasonable over the question of German economic and political rehabilitation than ever before.

Earlier the French had been adamant against building up Germany, but at Paris, both Britain and France seemed more worried about Germany as a commercial competitor than as a military force, Acheson reported.

They were willing to go much farther in rebuilding German production, provided that tight control over military development was guaranteed.

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK — Something tells me that the duration - and - six months has about run its course.

In other words, as a buyer, I have a hunch the war is over.

I glean this intimation from the ponderings at the mid-year convention of the merchandising section of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, which has just met in New York.

In solemn sessions assembled, the association openly declared, proclaimed and broadcast the old time gospel that the customer is always right.

Even now, merchants and their executives are returning to all four corners of the United States with the noble promise to love, honor and obey the customer and break the arm of any clerk who upstages or sasses the patron, even if he is just looking.

It is with understandable timidity that I broach my economic thought for the day: That the recession may be a very nice place to live if this sort of thing keeps up.

Of course, the shock is going to be something terrible at first when I sidle into a shop and one of the grande dames behind the counter bares a tooth paste smile at me instead of a fang.

And it's going to be awfully hard on the grande dame, too. For almost a decade, she has been queen of the May. But merchants are going home from this New York convention bound by an agreement to retrain their staffs in the new-old idea that customers are people and not necessarily habitual offenders.

* * *

No Favors Asked.

PERHAPS my spirit has been broken by the war and post-war hauteur of the average sales person. But, I will be satisfied with a retraining program that merely impresses on the staff the fact that it is possible to be civil without losing caste.

I don't want any favors. I don't need my windshields wiped or my powder base changed. All I ask is a kind word and a dry goods duchess who will not sniff audibly when I approach and ask the price of a blooze.

And while the merchants are retraining their girls and boys, would it be possible to discourage those kaffeeklatches into which the hired hands go whenever a customer approaches? And to limit the reunion of the Gabble sisters, say to fifteen minutes every half hour?

After almost ten years of getting the back of the hand from the nation's merchant princes, it was a tonic to these old ears to hear convention speakers warning:

"You can't sit in your ivory towers forever waiting for the customers to seek an audience with your sales people."

"Let's take our feet off the desk and wait on the customers."

"The honeymoon is over and we must retrain our staffs to cultivate the goodwill of the public."

"It's a shock to some of us to realize that our big job isn't buying these dyas—it's selling."

For bitter or for better, we are in a new era, that's for sure. "Be Kind To Customers" week is about to begin and it's going to stretch right around the calendar.

Remember all those priority lists during and just after the war? You had to be on a priority list to get anything from a car to a clambake. But there's only one priority list left today. That's the priority list of customers the merchant presses so fondly to his weskit and croons over like a litany.

The merchant prince, after a ten-year lapse, has gone back to practicing his wolf call.

The shoe is on the other clodhopper, you and I are in the driver's seat and that mood music you hear coming from the floor walker is "I Kiss Your Hand, Modom."

THE appointment of Mrs. Perle Mesta to diplomatic rank is an object lesson to other career girls.

Here is a little woman who rose above abject wealth . . . literally pulling herself up by her own ropes of pearls.

But her departure from Washington will leave a great void which can be filled only by some other potential stateswoman of unlimited funds.

Anyway it's nice to know that our affairs in Luxembourg will be in soft hands.

And Mrs. Mesta's appointment must not be thought of as political patronage. . . . She happened to be one of the few persons who know where is Luxembourg.

Farmer's Diary

Wheat Harvest Time

By CALVIN A. BYERS

WHEAT harvest! Wheat a bumper crop! Great saffron seas of rippling grain, great combines traveling long rounds, great elevators, storage bins, flour mills and manufacturing plants waiting for the finish of the farmer's work.

Yesterday I walked in a field of uncut wheat — tall grain in sturdy drill rows as high as my shoulders. The long heavy heads bowed before my face, the chaff appeared golden brown. The odor of ripe grain graciously filled the atmosphere.

Today the combine moves in, followed by the baler, and the grain is trucked away to the nearest elevator, while the straw remains on the ground in neat round bales that will be hauled away tomorrow. The red-brown grain, scarcely touched by human hands, flows in a mighty stream into the storage provided for it.

Beginning in the Southwest several weeks ago, the harvest travels northward, crashes like music upon our ears and senses, moves mightily across the plains and surges into the valleys, echoes its message of health and well-being far around the world!

And brings its problems. For our neighbors are hungry nations. "And like smallpox, the results of hunger, poverty and ignorance are extremely contagious." We can only teach people to help themselves . . any other kind of help is not lasting or real.

What we do with our harvest should be the concern of every good citizen. "The chief harvest of the land is Man himself," says Wellington Brink. "From the soil comes the quality of his bone and muscle. What he is, what he does, are determined by the acres he tills. His courage, his ambition, his very way of thinking, grow out of the furrows at his feet as truly as the wheat and cotton he tends."

The American wheat harvest is at once the farmer's joy, his answer to the world's need, and his responsibliity. Food, wisely used, is power greater than atom bombs.

"The science of nutrition may be said to have advanced to the point where it is firmly established not only as a branch of preventive medicine, but as a major instrument of social policy." — Richard Osborn Commings.

I watched the heaving swells of ripe wheat move across the long field. I threshed out a single head of grain in my hand, blew away the chaff, and thoughtfully chewed the kernels.

Dave Boone Says:

HALF a hundred and more senators have sent a petition to the President asking him to cut the fantastic budget from 5 to 10 per cent. That's like a man tossing dollar bills out of a hotel window and then asking his wife to try for a little economy.

* * *

In the American tradition Congress is supposed to control the finances and keep any president from spending too much. But today more than ever its members refuse to vote for any cuts where a few votes might be lost.

* * *

When those boys sincerely want to save the country from going deeper and deeper into the hole, they can do it. That petition doesn't fool anybody much.

* * *

I just heard the understatement of the year at that Hiss-Chambers hearing: "Somebody around here isn't telling the whole truth."

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL WEDS MISS LOUISE BENNETT

Henry J. Sheets United in Marriage to Minford, Ohio, Girl on June 26 in Baptist Church Rite

ANNOUNCEMENTS have been received here today of the marriage of Miss Louise Bennett of Minford, to Henry J. Sheets, principal of the East Mansfield school. The nuptials were spoken Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Fairview Baptist church, north of Minford, with the Rev. Clarence Caulley officiating. The wedding took place before a background arrangement of palms and baskets of white gladioli and white hydrangeas.

Miss Bennett is the daughter of Mrs. Ada Bennett and the late Everett Bennett, and Mr. Sheets, who came to Mansfield from Gallipolis, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sheets of Gallipolis.

The bride chose a white summer suit with white accessories for her wedding. Her wide brimmed hat was trimmed with russet brown ribbon. A red rose corsage completed her ensemble.

Miss Helen Bennett, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was attired in a dress of white pique made with a triple peplum, and her white hat was also trimmed with russet brown ribbon. She wore a red rose corsage.

Kenneth L. Sheets of Gallipolis, served as his brother's best man.

Mrs. Bennett was attired in a blue and white print dress. Mrs. Sheets chose a black and white print dress for her son's wedding. Both mothers had pink and white carnation corsages.

Prior to the wedding ceremony a chicken dinner was served buffet style to members of the immediate families. A large wedding cake decorated in white and silver was used as the centerpiece on the table, along with cut flowers.

Mrs. Sheets graduated from Minford high school and Rio Grande college and attended Ohio university. For the last several years, she has taught at Clay Township school.

Mr. Sheets was graduated from Gallipolis high school and Rio Grande college and attended Ohio State university and Stanford university. Both the bride and bridegroom will teach in Mansfield upon their return from an extended trip through Arizona and New Mexico.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding and dinner were from Gallipolis and Athens.

Tourist Club Ends Season With Picnic

Twenty - one members and three guests, Mrs. F. W. Cheney, Mrs. W. C. Peterson and Mrs. Nellie Gates, attended the last meeting of the year of the Tourist club. The picnic was held in South park Tuesday afternoon.

After the dinner, Mrs. G. J. Kochenderfer, retiring president, welcomed the group. At this time Mrs. Peterson was received as a new member.

Mrs. S. D. Hoover, president for the coming year, was introduced by Mrs. Kochenderfer after a short farewell talk was given. Mrs. Robert Jones, program chairman, was requested to give an outline of the program for next year.

Mrs. Hoover than named Mrs. C. E. Frankeberger chairman for the American Indian committee, Mrs. Grant Ward, dental clinic, and Mrs. Weldon P. Close, radio.

October 4 is the date for the first session of the new year. At this time members of Tourist club will join with Sorosis for a luncheon at the Women's club.

Flower Displays At Meeting of Garden Club

Mrs. Stanley Taylor was hostess to members of the Linnaeus Garden club Tuesday afternoon at her cottage at Walton lake.

Arrangements of table flowers displayed at different flower shows were discussed by Mrs. Henry Paulsen. Several members made arrangements for display. The outstanding selections were the modern luncheon table by Mrs. Virgil Hartman and Mrs. Ray Hammer, the picnic table by Mrs. Willis Linn, the old fashioned by Mrs. Vale Scouten and the formal table by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Paulsen.

Appointed on the nominating committee were Mrs. Paulsen, Mrs. Linn and Mrs. Clyde Smaltz.

The next session will be July 12 at 11:00 o'clock. This will be a work meeting at the herb garden followed by a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Scouten, 51 Parkwood blvd.

Pocahontas Lodge Meets At Eagles

The Pocahontas lodge met at the Eagle Hall with Mrs. John Spiker, Pocahontas, in charge. During the business meeting a report of the state session held last week in Dayton was given by representative, Mrs. Herbert Altafler.

After the business meeting a birthday party was held. Mrs. Theresa Overly and her committee were the hostesses. Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Altaffer and Mrs. Floyd Grandstaff. The degree team will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Wolf, West Fourth street. The Past Councilors meeting will be announced at a later date. The next lodge meeting will be held July 12 at the K. of P. Hall, corner of Fourth and Main streets.

Officers Meet For Dinner Party

Officers and committee chairmen of the Women of the Moose met for a dinner at the home of Mrs. Michael Campanelli, 97 West Dickson avenue.

The long table was arranged with lighted tapers and garden flowers. All present received gifts from Mrs. Campanelli. The chairmen presented her with a coffee table.

Cards were the diversion of the evening. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ralph Benson, Mrs. R. D. Blackledge, Mrs. Inez Spiker, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Mrs. Mabel Keller, Mrs. Delbert Harris, Mrs. Marion Gerrell, Mrs. Michael Campanelli, Mrs. Stanley Marietta and Mrs. William Caugherty.

BRITISH WIVES MEET

The British Wives' club met at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Hawk, 111 Louis avenue. After a short business meeting Mrs. A. C. Tuttle, guest speaker, gave a talk entitled "American Cooking." It was decided to have a family picnic for the next meeting. The date, time and place, will be announced later.

Formal Ceremony Unites Versailles Girl, Mr. Bechtel

WEARING A LOVELY white marquisette gown over blue marquisette, Miss Joanne Fambrough, of Versailles, became the bride of Robert H. Bechtel, 421 South Main street, June 19, in the Versailles Trinity Lutheran church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jerome Fambrough, of Versailles. Mr. Bechtel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis H. Bechtel, of the Mansfield address.

The Rev. Paul R. Getter officiated for the double ring, candlelight service. The custom of open church was observed. Nuptial music was provided by Miss Mary Bess Minser and Ronald Shellhause.

The church was decorated with larkspur intermingled with white gladiolus. The altar was banked with palms. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice buttoned down the front and trimmed ith pleated ruffles. Her bridal veil matched her gown and was also trimmed with pleated ruffles which ended at her long train. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses mixed with baby breath.

Her sister, Miss Marilyn Jean Fambrough, served as maid of honor. She was attired in pink taffeta under white organdy. The bridesmaids, college classmates of the bride, were Mrs. Jack Fisher and Ethel Mydler. They wore yellow taffeta under white organdy.

The junior bridesmaid, Karen Sue Seman, the bride's cousin, wore green taffeta under white organdy. All attendants wore picture hats matching their gowns. They all carried arm bouquets of mixed garden flowers.

Mrs. Fambrough chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a lighter shade of blue. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Rodger Morrow served as best man. Alvin Fowl, Dave Todd, Robert Vrbanac and Robert E. Raitch, escorted guests to their pews.

A reception for one hundred and fifty guests followed the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. It was flanked with crystal bowls containing white larkspur and white gladiolus. White lighted tapers in crystal holders completed the appointments.

The couple left for a wedding trip at Lake Erie and Chicago. The bride was attired in an olive green gabardine suit with natural colored straw accessories. They will be at home July 5 in Columbus.

The bride is a graduate of Versailles high school and Ohio State university. The bridegroom graduated from Mansfield senior high school and is now a senior at Ohio State university.

Donna Porter Feted With Nuptial Party

Miss Betty Pagnard, 40 Douglas avenue, complimented Miss Donna Mae Porter, bride - elect of John J. Cicolani, with a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening. Sixteen were in attendance.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening. When scores were tallied, personal prizes were awarded to Mrs. James Cocolani, who will serve as matron of honor for the wedding, and Miss Eleanor Homerick.

Clues in nursery rhymns led Miss Porter to her hidden gifts.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess at small tables. Yellow roses, the bride - elect's favorite flower, centered each table. In the dining room was placed arrangements of yellow roses and sweetpeas. Matching tapers in silver candlesticks were placed on each side of the arrangements.

Miss Porter and Mr. Cicolani will exchange nuptial vows July 15 in the Central Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The custom of open church will be observed for the formal wedding with the Rev. J. Frank Stewart officiating.

FRIDAY MEETING

Members of the Ladies' Missionary Prayer Band of the Gospel Center church will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Bruce Gruneisen, 381 Springmill street.

MEET THURSDAY

Members of Circle Four of the Ontario Community church will meet Thursday evening at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Clyde Taylor. Mrs. Harold Taylor will serve as associate hostess.

Wilson-Anderson Nuptials Solemnized In Church Rite

Miss Rosella Jane Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gwin Wilson, 905 Forest street, Lincoln Heights, became the bride of Roscoe C. Anderson, June 19, in a formal open church ceremony at the First church of the Brethren, in Lincoln Heights.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Anderson, R. D. 2. The Rev. I. E. Oberholtzer officiated for the single ring service. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Vincent Kennedy.

The couple repeated their vows before an altar banked with palms and candleabra and two beauty baskets of mixed flowers. Candlelight was used for the formal ceremony.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was attired in a princess style gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a small train. Her illusion veil was trimmed in lace and held by a small cap-like headpiece of white satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Roscoe L. Swank, of Bellville, a close friend of the couple, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of nile green. Another close friend, Mrs. Paul E. Kissel, of Ashland, served as bridesmaid. Her gown was a summer orchid shade. Both attendants carried bouquets of red roses with streamers which matched their gowns.

Mrs. Wilson chose for her daughter's wedding a black and white sheer crepe dress with white accessorked. The bridegroom's mother wore a flowered print dress with black and white accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

The bride's brother, Gwin C. Wilson, served as best man. Roscoe Swank, a close friend, and Robert Wilson, the bride's brother, escorted guests to their pews.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony, on the front lawn of the bride's parents' home. The serving table was centered with a four tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Appointments were in pink and white. Red roses trimmed the table.

For her wedding trip through the eastern part of Pennsylvania, the bride wore a sheer blue and pink dress with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Shiloh after July 11.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of Madison high school and is an employe of Westinghouse Electric corporation. The bridegroom is a graduate of Union Rural high school and is associated with his father in farming. Out - of - town guests were present for the wedding from Altoona, Tipton, Tyrone and Bellwood, Pa., Ashland, Akron and Bellville.

Young Greek Girl Adapts Herself Quickly To America

By CATHERINE RORICK

GALION — Petite, dark-haired Mary Stath, 23, who came to the United States a little more than a year and a half ago, has had a sparkle in her eyes when she told of going to Washington, D. C., for her honeymoon. It is the capital of her new country which she has learned to love because it offers so much more to her than her native Greece.

Mary and Harold Paul of Akron were married Sunday at 5 p. m., in Grace Episcopal church

The double ring ceremony was read in both Greek and English languages by a Greek priest and the Episcopalian rector

Although Mary didn't come to Galion until November 12, 1947, she has learned to speak and write English much better than many high school graduates She joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs Peter Stath in 1947, and since she was going to make America her permanent home, she enrolled at St. Joseph's parochial school where she started with the first graders to learn to read and write English She completed the first three grades by May, 1948, and this May she finished the five grades. Because she was well educated in Greece, Mary had only to learn English. She graduated from the "gymnasium" (same as our high school) in Athens, Greece.

Besides going to school, Mary has operated her father's business since she came to Galion.

Mary spent her first 21 years in Greece where she was born. Her father came to America shortly after her birth, and she next saw him when she was four years old and he made a trip back to Greece in 1930 The next time she saw him was in November, 1947 when she was a young woman Her mother Penelope, preceded Mary to America by nine months. Mary's brother, Thomas, is still in Greece where he is a professor.

About the second week after Mary was in Galion she met Harold Paul in Akron, a boy, whose father and Mary's father were close friends for years. The meeting cluminated in a romance and betrothal. Harold is 26 years old, American born, and recently resigned his position in the Akron post office to come to Galion to take over the business of Mary's father.

MISS MARY SMITH

MT GILEAD — Mr. and Mrs. Great Smith are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mary Margaret, to Ralph Mosher, son of Mr. and Mrs Harold Mosher

The bride-elect is a graduate of Johnsville high school. She is an employe of the Humphryes Manufacturing company. Mr. Mosher attending Cardington high school and is employed at the Gander Bakery in Cardington. The wedding will be an event of late summer.

Clark-Tilton Nuptial Vows Exchanged

NORTH FAIRFIELD — The United Church was the scene of a lovely wedding June 11th, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Beth Clark of New Haven, daughter of Mr and Mrs. H. S Clark, became the bride of Roger B. Tilton, son of Mr. and Mrs William Tilton of this place The church was beautifully decorated with seven, and five branch brass candelabra and lighted candles, with single brass candle-sticks in each window. Baskets of roses also formed part of the decorations.

The Rev. P. J. Garcia, of Norwalk, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bridal party was composed of bridesmaids, Miss Nancy Walker and Mrs. Gerald Fife of North Fairfield, who were gowned in pink, and blue satin, with corsages of white roses. Mrs Helen Youngs of Greenwich, matron of honor, was gowned in aqua The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, Scott Clark of Cleveland, wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and full skirt with a short train, and a double, fingertip veil edged with lace, and carried an arm bouquet of white roses with a few red rose buds. She wore a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Elmer Clark, brother of the bride, served as best man, and the ushers were Harold Smith of New Haven, and James Youngs of Greenwich.

A reception in the church parlors was held immediately following the wedding ceremony, and a lovely five-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table. Mr. and Mrs. Tilton left on a wedding trip in the east, and are now "at home" at Hanville Corners, north of here.

New London B and PW Club

The time and place committee consisted of H A. McElhaney, chairman, Dale Arnold and Russell McCullough. Those on the food committee were Miss Helene Gilbert and Thomas Nicholson The entertainment committee was composed of Miss Janet Kelly, George Patten and Gerald Little. After the dinner, games were played and boating enjoyed.

HOROSCOPE

For Thursday, June 30

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

There is excellent augury for some sudden and quite unpredictable event or development, that may move the interests and objectives into strange or unfamiliar channels. Or new ways and means or techniques may be brought to bear upon old established routines or circumstances, in which a concentrated, persistent and diligent course of action may evolve fresh tactics better qualified for success and progress. Solid growth may arise from hard work applied to experimental ideas.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are encouraged to concentrate their efforts, abilities and diligent attack upon unusual or novel plans or objectives, which may lag in an experimental condition or want of sound tactics or earnest efforts. The prospects are excellent for pushing new ideas or projects by sound study of basic factors, carefully organized, and executed with far vision and earnest attention to details or minor impediments. In the long run, disconcerting and critical situations may be turned into profitable channels by creative efforts

Those whose birthday it is may have the ability to put over novel or unique programs, by sturdy, sound and enduring efforts to make them go by sheer determination and resolve.

Coplon Spy Case Goes To Jury

Girl Facing 13-Year Term

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Judith Coplon spy case went to the jury at 10 55 a m EDT today, after a 25-minute charge by Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves.

Reeves instructed the jury on the law surrounding the charges against the ex-government girl after denying a defense motion for a mistrial

Reeves' instructions followed closing arguments in which the prosecution asserted the girl was "a clever spy" who "hated the United States" and her lawyer painted her as "a simple little girl in love."

If a guilty verdict is returned on both counts of the indictment against her Miss Coplon will face a maximum tentence of 13 years in prison and a $12,000 fine

FACES N. Y. TRIAL

Whatever the verdict the girl still faces a similar trial in New York with Russian Engineer Valentin Gubitchev, who she says was her "one-kiss" lover and who the government says was her spy "contact"

Under the New York indictment she faces a maximum sentence of 35 years in prison and $20,000 in fines

The trial officially closed Tuesday with an oratorical battle between fast-talking Defense Lawyer Archibald Palmer and Prosecutors John M Kelley and Raymond Whearty

Palmer concentrated his closing speech to the jury almost entirely on the claim that his client was "framed" and that Whearty, aided by Kelley, did the framing

Kelley told the jury that Miss Coplon was chosen for the Soviet espionage service after careful investigation by Russian agents He added

"They chose well. They found in Judith Coplon a girl who hated the government of the United States and was willing to sell out her country a clever spy."

Kelley accused Palmer of shedding "crocodile tears" over the fact that the names of Actor Fredric March and others were dragged into the trial An informant was quoted in one of the reports as stating that March was a communist party member in 1947

Fuss Rages As Lucas Starts Fire House

By VIRGINIA LEE, N-J State Correspondent

LUCAS—Work began yesterday on Lucas and Monroe township's new fire house and resolution for the purchase of more than $10 000 worth of fire-fighting equipment was adopted earlier in the week, but area residents still are a long way from having the fire protection they visualized when they balloted for it last November

The Lucas Volunteer Fire company, that had been counted on to man the new town-country system, will not act after the merger goes into effect

Mass resignation of Chief Dale Peterson and every member of his department was presented last month in protest to the type of equipment the township trustees had ordered and for lack of consideration given the firemen in the selection of the new apparatus

Members of the fire department and village councilmen, under whose jurisdiction the firemen have operated in past years, favor the purchase of a high pressure system. The trustees ordered a low pressure system.

Five bids, that were not entirely comparable in their content, were received as a result of advertising and were opened in a special session of the trustees May 21. Bid of the American Fire Apparatus company of Battle Creek, Mich., to furnish equipment for $10,089 19 was accepted May 24, according to minutes of the clerk of thustees, with the resolution to that effect adopted in a special session in the county prosecutor's office on Monday of this week Trustee Byron King moved for the adoption of this resolution with Trustees Grover Snyder and John Culler concurring in their votes

Until the resolution was adopted this week, firemen and councilmen had been hopeful the trustees would rescind their action of May 24 in accepting the bid for the low pressure equipment, and either reconsider the bids already submitted or readvertise for more bids. Trustees, on the other hand, hoped for the firemen to reconsider their resignations.

George Clark Lucas mail carrier, was the successful low bidder for the construction of the 40 by 60 concrete block fire house to be erected on the site of the village hall recently razed, that also housed the town's fire equipment His bid was for $8,-882 03 exclusive of lighting and plumbing fixtures and heating equipment

Mailbox Thieves On Regular Route

MARYSVILLE — (INS) — union county authorities searched today for at least 44 rural mailboxes wrenched from posts and for the car-traveling thieves who risked three years in jail to get them

Sheriff Walter Galloway said the thieves traveled a route like that of a mailman as they scooped up the boxes. He said: "They were particular, passing up the big ones and taking only those of average size."

NEW! FREE OHIO POST CARDS! Another Sohio Service! This week Standard Oil is issuing the first of a series of striking, full-color post cards showing Ohio scenes. This photograph of the beautiful Ohio River . . . is now available at all Sohio stations. Send these cards to friends in other states . . . have the children collect them as an educational hobby! These are not "ordinary" post cards, each is a fine reproduction of a full-color photograph selected from many taken by leading photographers. They are truly beautiful pieces of work—worth collecting and keeping!

Ohio River. The "Beautiful Ohio" has been lauded in words and song by generations of past and present Americans Bordered by fertile valleys which slope into wooded hills of almost 1,000 feet, it forms the curving southeastern boundary of our state. You can view the above scene from the John Rankin house, in Ripley, through which hundreds of slaves passed on their way to freedom in Canada. At a point below the house Eliza Harris, legendary figure immortalized in Uncle Tom's Cabin, crossed the icy river with her baby in her arms.

Let's Explore Ohio!

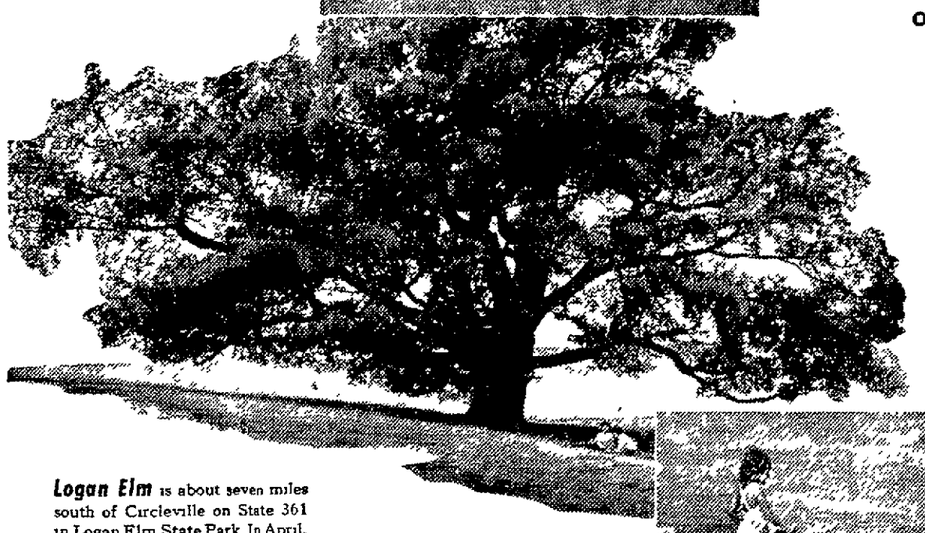
Schoenbrunn Memorial State Park. One mile south of New Philadelphia on Route 250 is an authentic restoration of the first settlement in Ohio, Schoenbrunn. Originally erected by peace-loving Christianized Indians in 1772, it comprised 60 log cabins, a school and a church See this remarkable village now restored to its original appearance by the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society!

It has often been said that no other state is so typically American as Ohio Few other states have had such a strong influence on the history of the entire country. Few other states have more varied beauty and interest.

See the actual spots, many restored to their original form, where much of American history was made. Thrill to Ohio's lovely scenery. Relax and enjoy our fine recreation facilities.

What better time than this summer to explore the hundreds of fascinating places in Ohio?

SOHIO ROAD MAP SHOWS LOCATION OF HISTORIC AND RECREATION SPOTS



Logan Elm is about seven miles south of Circleville on State 361 in Logan Elm State Park In April, 1774, Americans unprovokingly murdered the brother and sister of the celebrated tribal chief Logan. He retaliated with weeks of savage warfare. Later, when he was sent for to attend a council by Lord Dunmore, governor of Virginia, the state then claiming this part of Ohio, it was under this majestic elm that Ohio's greatest Indian lamented his fate: ". . . Who is there to mourn for Logan? Not one."

Zaleski State Forest—Route 278 northeast of McArthur. In this wonderland of 4,000 wooded acres, you will find freedom from work-a-day cares Whether hiking through the miles of picturesque trails, driving on the improved roads or enjoying the view at the Lake Hope lookout, you'll find scenic beauty on every side. Camping, swimming, boating, fishing, give all-around outdoor variety!

Lake Erie. One of the most delightful natural playgrounds in Ohio is the famous Lake Erie Shoreline. You'll find its miles of broad, white sandy beaches ideal for soothing relaxation. Why not take advantage of this grand lake this summer? The swimming is excellent—the fishing good!

Galion Preps For Fourth's Celebration

Homecoming Also To Be Observed

GALION — Galion is literally a beehive of activity this week as chairmen and their workers are working feverishly to make Galion's Fourth of July celebration one of the best in many years.

Sponsored by the Heise Park committee for the purpose of promoting the park improvement project, the celebration also is to be known as a homecoming.

The variety show, "Laff it Off," which is being directed by Grace Sullivan of Colorado Springs, will be given Sunday afternoon, Monday afternoon and evening. The big production is slated for Monday evening, July 4. Rehearsals have been underway all week, and the cast will probably be released by Friday.

The Tiny Tots contest which was launched Tuesday morning is drawing the attention of the entire community. Winners of the contest are to be announced at one of the presentations of the variety show.

The day's events on the Fourth will be climaxed with a gigantic display of fireworks which are being furnished by by Scarbrough post, The American Legion.

Monday's events will feature a square dance on horses by the Buckeye Rangers, equestrian club of this vicinity, band concert, concessions by all civic and fraternal organizations of the city, and other attractions besides the variety show, "Laff it Off." The show is sponsored by the Galion Chamber of Commerce.

Annuals Arrive

LUCAS — Lucas school annuals, that were due to arrive before the close of school, came in this week and will be distributed at the school Friday afternoon and evening. Seniors, who compiled the yearbooks, will be on hand to help in the distribution.

ATTENDING CAMP

HAYESVILLE — Eight members of the Hayesville Boys 4-H Club are attending Camp Ohio, near Utica, this week. The club meets the second and fourth Thursday evenings of each month and has a membership of 51 boys.

Iberia 4-H Clubbers Discuss Camp Ohio, Sports Night Plans

IBERIA — F W. Dalrymple, associate Morrow county extension agent, spoke before the Miss America 4-H club here and discussed plans for Camp Ohio and the county Sports night.

Other 4-H clubs drafted activities at this week's meetings. The Thistle Twisters were entertained at a wiener roast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thew. The club is planning a trip to Ohio State university during the summer months.

The Thoughtful Farmers defeated the Villagers, 3-0, in a softball game preceding their meeting in the Farm Shop. It was attended by 30 members and the meeting was conducted by Randall Schreck. Members voted to carry out a health program to choose the healthiest boy in each club.

Carl Miller, new member, has chosen a garden project. Richard McClarren joined this week by following a sheep raising program. M. Doyle Rusk is advisor to the 4-H groups.

THREE DONATE BLOOD

HAYESVILLE — Three members of the local Lions club were Vermillion township blood donors during June. There were L. J. Vaughn, Byron McFarlin and Lee McFarlin. Donors for the July 13 date may obtain pledge cards at the McFarlin Garage or contact Mrs. N. H. Shilliday by phone.

Barn Collapses

HAYESVILLE — A dairy cow was killed when a straw barn on the Richard Shilliday farm, south of here, collapsed under the weight of the new hay. Saturday 25 neighbors assisted Shilliday to remove the hay and fallen timber.

Defense Secy L. Johnson made a pretty speech this week announcing the Marines and Navy Air Arm wouldn't be junked. That was part of our complaint in "Blueprint for Disaster," which Collier's ran recently.

But this is how Secy Johnson "evens things." Rear Admiral Edward E. Ewen (chief of Public Relations for the Navy Dept.) has been quietly ordered to Guam for duty with an aviation unit . . . Brig. Gen. John T. Selden (chief of Public Relations for the Marines at Washington) got the heaveho, too. He was shifted to a minor post at New River, N. C., and no successor has been named.

Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (Mass.) writes: "I was very much impressed by your fine article in Collier's titled 'Blueprint for Disaster,' and I made a brief address in the House about it and had it inserted in the Congressional Record. You have done an excellent job and I agree with you, the people and the Congress should be given the truth regarding our national defense."

Yale Grads Change Theme Song From 'Boola, Boola' To 'Moola'

He seems to have been lost in the crush of years, but a number of old Eli's other sons have done right well by themselves.

Yes, sir, the lads who stayed up all night a quarter of a century ago singing "Boola, Boola," can sleep late now because they are making plenty of "moola, moola."

The class of 1924 has done all right for itself. In fact I have come to the conclusion, after studying some statistics compiled for the class's 25th reunion this year, that one of the signs of a misspent life is not to have been graduated from Yale university the year Calvin Coolidge was elected president.

These highly secret figures were smuggled to me by a ribald friend who sent them here, hidden in an old pumpkin, via an intermediary. The man traveled on a coach car of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railway to avoid detection.

The statistics show that 25 years after leaving Yale's ivory tower the boys have an average earned income of $17,210 and an average income from all sources of $25,111. The largest single income was a tidy $400,000.

The boys have turned out to be good steady husbands. They carry an average of $55,262 in life insurance — enough to cheer any prospective widow. Some 71 per cent have one or more servants and only 7.1 percent have wives who work outside the home.

★

More than 82 per cent have never been fired from a job and 12.2 per cent were only fired once.

The class of 1924 produced only one clergyman, one coroner, one librarian, one radio broadcaster, one newspaperman and one man willing to describe himself as a philanthropist.

But it turned out 16 bankers, 31 educators, 22 insurance men, 37 lawyers, 22 investment brokers, 22 physicians and 68 manufacturers.

Today 149 men own all or part of their businesses, 54 own no part. Six are board chairmen, 34 are company presidents, 44 are vice presidents, 36 are partners and at least 30 are full owners. Five men have already retired.

A total of only 626 children of both sexes was reported by 330 class members, indicating Yale will have to look beyond its own graduates for its future crop of freshmen. Only two men had as many as six children. Forty-two had none.

Some 194 men thought the county was in for more inflation, 90 thought prosperity would continue, 37 foresaw recession and 177 a depression. On the other hand 161 thought the outlook of their own business was good. 125 believed it was fair and only 10 poor. Yale men are self-reliant. They believe in themselves.

The class favored the Marshall plan 273 to 47, the United Nations 275 to 40, the atom bomb policy 266 to 42. They opposed a government sponsored health program 57 to 259, and were against Truman's tax proposals 29 to 288. Incidentally, they paid an average of $8,609 in taxes last year.

10 Youths Wage Battle Near Lucas

Cited To Appear In Juvenile Court

Ten Mansfield teen-aged youths who staged a battle near Lucas shortly after 3 a. m. today, were cited to appear before Probate-Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer Thursday morning.

Sheriff's deputies, called to the scene by three of four youths who were attacked, said the fourth member of the party got away after being assualted by six youths and was still missing today.

Deputies said the boy's ages ranged from 15 to 18 and the addresses of the participants included Waring avenue, Blanche street, Park avenue east, Wood street and Newman street.

According to the story of the three boys who broke away from the fracas and drove to Lucas to summon the deputies, they and a fourth boy, 16 years old had started to Lucas to fish. They told officers six other youths followed in another car and that when they approached Lucas a battle broke out with the six "jumping on" the four.

Deputies said they believed the 16-year-old, who withstood the six assailants by himself, got away and hid.

The three youths told officers the six assailants formed a human chain across the road when they tried to escape to Lucas and that they finally broke through amid a hail of stones from the six.

The six, who finally took to their car, were apprehended a few minutes later by deputies when their car broke down on the highway.

Deputies said they did not know the cause of the battle.

Petitioner Overdoes It

A too persistent petition bearer got a bloody nose instead of a signature last night when he tried force on an Evanston, Ill., resident in a local bar.

Albert Cramer of Evanston called police from the Creamer bar and grill, 304 North Main street to report he had struck the petitioner in self defense.

However, by the time police got to the scene the persistent man had given up and left.

Cramer explained to officers the man approached him and urged him to sign a petition in the bar. Cramer said he explained he was an out-of-state resident and that his signature "wouldn't mean anything."

Upon that, according to Cramer, the petitioner swung on Cramer but missed. Cramer swung and connected.

Attendants at the bar told police they did not know the identity of the petitioner.

Royal Crown Show Host To Newsboys

The Royal Crown Shows will be host tonight to more than 200 News-Journal carriers who will see most of the shows on the Blue Goose grounds without charge. The carriers will get free tickets to the ferris wheel and other rides on the grounds of the big carnival.

One of the new features of the show is Costandi Soleem Jarjoura, the mystic, who relates 2,000 years of world knowledge to that of the atomic age.

IT'S WAR — The Joseph Tischinger family, 551 Park avenue west, has turned out en-masse to fight the rabbits which have invaded their garden. The bean crop has suffered particularly. In the formation, (left to right), are Mrs. Titschinger; Joseph, jr., 6; Norman, 9; Joseph sr., and Daniel, 5. In the front rank is Rags, age unknown.

Hares Eat Greenery, Gardeners See Red

Mansfield gardeners are up in arms this week, angered by a mass invasion of gardens by rabbits.

"I never saw so many rabbits in all my life," one irate hoe wielder fumed.

"I've had to put all my garden under fence except for one row of green stuff. I left that outside the fence. Now it's gone!"

The appearance of so many rabbits seems to verify what the State Conservation commission predicted last week — a banner season for hunting.

"Sure," reported one gardening enthusiast, "there'll be good hunting. And I'll personally guarantee the rabbits will be good and fat. They should be, they've been eating me out of house and home!"

Although hunters are pleased with the suddenly enlarged crop of oryctolagus cuniculus (rabbits, that is) 'city farmers' are puzzled. Rabbits are fairly easy to shoot.

But it's against the law to use firearms within the city limits.

Rabbits are easy to trap.

But trapping poses a threat to wandering cats and dogs.

Rabbits eat almost anything green, so are susceptible to poison.

But poisoning again threatens cats and dogs

The 'catch-'em-alive' brand of traps would be one answer to the problem since cats and small dogs could be captured and released unhurt.

But the cost makes any large scale operation such as this prohibitive.

"Against the law or not," one gardener stormed, "if those darn rabbits keep chewing on my lettuce, I'm gonna cut loose with a shotgun."

Meanwhile, the bunnies keep hopping on their merry way, nibbling at succulent crops. Instead of showing fear of mankind, the rabbits are taking nicely to city life, thank you, and can be seen playing on lawns — and gardens — practically every night.

For years man has destroyed the natural habitat of the rabbit.

Now the rabbit is exacting his 'pound of flesh' — especially in Mansfield.

Post Office Adds Station

A new post office sub-station will go into operation Friday, July 1, at Sternbaum's market, 865 Lexington avenue, Curtiss L. Ford, acting post master, said today. This will be the fifth substation to be located in Mansfield.

Sub-station No. 1 is to be moved on the same date to Flood's Naborhood store, 503 West Fourth street from 12 Rowland avenue.

The other three sub-stations located in Mansfield are at 27, South Diamond street, 408 Springmill road, and at Orange and Central.

These sub-stations offer the same services as the post office except for COD delivery, and the buying of government bonds and postal savings.

License Plates To Drop One-Fourth

A one-quarter reduction in the cost of license tags will go into effect Friday, Jack Berger, Mansfield deputy registrar, said today.

The cost of passenger car license plates will drop from $10 to $7.50; motorcycles, from $5 to $3.75; and trucks will drop one-fourth, the cost depending upon the weight.

Junior Fair Board Meets

July 5 Named As Conference Date

The Richland county Junior Fair board will meet at the county extension office in the Courthouse July 5 at 8:15 p. m., County Agent C. N. McGrew announced today.

Vocational agricultural instructors from all over the state are invited. They are to bring with them two outstanding members from their Future Farmers of America chapters. These members will be included on the Junior Fair board along with the teachers and 4-H representatives.

The fair will begin Aug. 18 and will continue for three days. Farm machinery dealers from all over the county will be invited to exhibit their machines and the county breeders associations will be invited to prepare exhibits the Senior fair board decided at its meeting this week.

The board stipulated that notification of all entries must be made to it by Aug. 13.

There will be a softball tournament the first day of the fair between the 4-H clubs McGrew announced. The board voted to provide baseball equipment for the tournament if none is donated by sporting goods dealers.

2 Bucyrians Hospitalized

BUCYRUS — Two Bucyrians are confined to City hospital here with fractures suffered in accidents occurring Monday.

David Rettig, five - year - old son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rettig, suffered a fractured left leg when he was struck by an auto driven by Mrs. Arlene Lohr, 20, of Bucyrus. The driver told police the child ran in front of her car at Sandusky avenue and Mary street. She was not held.

Mrs. Edward Everly, 65, suffered a fractured right hip when she fell in the backyard of the family home while hanging out her washing.

Up and Down the Street . . .

PLAQUE COMES DOWN

The war memorial plaque honoring the members of the Richland Bar association was removed from its place in the courthouse yesterday. The large plaque depicting war scenes and listing the members in the service was made during World War II by George M. Biddle, 585 West Third street. It was removed because many former service men who have since been admitted to the bar could not be included in the plaque. A more inclusive memorial is being planned by the bar association.

★

FISH BACK

Goldfish are back in the fountain at Central park. Frank Burton, park superintendent, said 125 fish were placed in the pool yesterday to replace the ones that died about a month ago. Water for the pool is being routed through a charcoal filter designed to remove chlorine from the water. Burton believes the fish were killed either by chlorine or by scraps of moldy food thrown into the pool.

★

TOO TECHNICAL —

The News-Journal Whale Derby was a 'whale' of a success last night at Charles Mill dam with Norman Chaloupka and Joe Menke proving to be the best fishermen. Chaloupka won a banana split donated by Topsy Coney Island along with a casting line from Ohio Sports Center for the largest fish, while Menke won a sports jacket from Matthes clothing store for the most fish. Rules stated that "all fish must be breathing" when entered. One fisherman, restricted to entering salmon only, outfoxed the judges by hauling in a label from a can of salmon but lost out when it was ruled the label "was not breathing."

FLOWER GROWERS, TOO—

Not to be outdone by the county auditor's office, the office of County Agent C. N. McGrew is today sporting a gloxinice plant grown by Mrs. H. J. Dotson, 72 Stewart avenue. The auditor's office had one of the lavender blues" last week.

Thieves Take Garden Hose

Theft of 100 feet of garden hose from a Wade and Gatton nursery truck while the vehicle was parked in the south end of the city, was reported to police late yesterday.

Bob Gatton of the nursery, told officers 50 feet of the hose disappeared from his truck while parked on Poplar street Monday night. Early yesterday, 50 feet more came up missing while the truck was parked on Andover road.

Gatton, who reported the thefts to police yesterday afternoon, valued the stolen hose at $16.

Petitions Signed By 175,000

Backers Seek More Names

COLUMBUS —(UP)—Supporters of colored oleomargarine in Ohio today announced that more than enough signatures have been obtained on petitions to place the question before the voters for a decision in November.

The Association of Voters for Colored Oleo said more than 175,000 persons had signed the supplementary initiative petitions. Only 70,000 signatures were needed.

Colored oleo backers decided to put the issue on the November ballot after the Ohio legislature failed to approve an initiated bill to permit the manufacture and sale of the colored butter substitute in the state.

Association Secretary Dorothy Clinger said the 175,000 signatures are from more than half of the counties of the state and that the total names of voters on the petitions would probably reach 200,000 before the petitions are filed with the secretary of state in July.

She again urged the House of Representatives to reconsider and approve the oleo bill saving the taxpayers "at least $50,000 in election expenses."

The oleo bill has for years been a legislative football, with the measure effectively blocked by its opponents. In general, the bill has been supported by representatives of the larger counties, and opposed by the smaller counties where agricultural interests predominate.

Fun Planned At Lake For Blind Group

There's a lot of fun planned tonight for Mansfield's Salvation army blind group who are enjoying a week's vacation on the shores of Lake Erie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Adams, proprietors of Bert's Colonial Villa, are giving the sightless visitors a barbecue. The Adams expect 21 guests.

Mrs. Jane Williams, executive secretary of the Community Chest said today that Mr. and Mrs. Adams have offered to make the barbecue an annual treat for the Salvation Army group. Mrs. Williams and the chest bookkeeper, Mrs. Bess Hynson spent the day with the group yesterday, taking motion pictures of the activities which will be shown during the annual Chest campaign in the fall.

Tomorrow, the men are being taken fishing by Maj. William Jones of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Williams said much of the time is being spent in the water or under shade trees listening to Paul Carson read from braille books.

Three of the families at the lake have their children with them. Mrs. Williams said the children, all normal, are doing a "marvelous" job of looking after their handicapped parents.

Bucyrus Banks Change Hours

BUCYRUS — Bucyrus' four banks will close at 2 p. m. on Saturdays, effective July 2, instead of noon as has been the practice since last August, E. Blair Ruhl, president of the second National bank, announced today.

With the later Saturday closing, the banks will resume their closing at noon on Wednesdays.

Ruhl said the decision to remain open until 2 p. m. on Saturdays was made because of the numerous complaints of individuals and merchants concerning the earlier closing.

Pennsy Promotes Crestline Native

H. A. Faulhaber, native of Crestline, has been promoted to the post of assistant chief claim agent, Central Region, of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Faulhaber began his railroad service in 1920 in Akron. He was advanced to claim agent in Akron in 1926 and held the same position at Cleveland in 1931. In 1940, Faulhaber was promoted to district claim agent at Canton and in 1944 was advanced to his present post of special claim agent at Pittsburgh.

Faulhaber will continue to maintain offices in Pittsburgh. His appointment becomes effective Friday, July 1.

Rites Set For Mrs. Swank, 71

Mrs. Alta Swank, 71, of Butler, widow of Elmer Swank, died Tuesday in Columbus after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Swank was born near Butler Aug. 1, 1877 and spent all her life in Richland county.

The body was removed to the Wappner funeral home where services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p. m. Rev. Carveth P. Mitchell of the First Lutheran church will be in charge. Burial will be in the Four Corners cemetery.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Harold Shrader of Mansfield, two grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Lovina Kanaga and Mrs. Viola Daugherty of Mansfield and Mrs. Mary Hindley of Butler, and two brothers, Austin Teeter of Bellville and Emanuel Teeter, Butler.

County's Tax Receipts Lag

Collection of the last half, 1948, real estate and special assessment tax is lagging, Charles C. Payne, Richland county treasurer, said today.

Yesterday's collections totaled $10,089 for a total so far of $312,445. Last year's collections were only about $1,000 more at this time, but the 1948 charge is higher by $42,000.

Collections began June 1 and the final date for payment is July 20.

Payne advised taxpayers the responsibility for payment exists whether or not they have received bills.

Mansfielder Was Coachman For President Cleveland

John J. Nolan, 81, for whom funeral services will be held tomorrow morning, followed a colorful career that included four years as a bodyguard and coachman for President Grover Cleveland.

Native of Ireland, Mr. Nolan as a young man was caretaker for the Central Park Riding academy in New York and later was a coachman for Frank Hastings, a Wall street broker.

Mr. Nolan got his job with President Cleveland through the recommendation of Hastings. He was a coachman during the warm months and during the winter was a special police guard in the White House. Mrs. Nolan helped to care for the President's children.

Following his White House Service, Mr. Nolan was coachman in New York for Emily Post, the noted authority on etiquette. The Nolans' daughter was named for her.

Mr. Nolan wore a high-top silk hat and drove a hansom cab in New York in the early 1900's before coming to Mansfield in 1908.

In Mansfield he was employed by the old Browning Manufacturing company, Roderick-Lean company, Aultman-Taylor company and the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company.

Mr. Nolan died Monday afternoon. Funeral high mass will be held at 9:30 a. m., tomorrow in St. Peter's Catholic church. Burial will be in the Mansfield Catholic cemetery.

Opens Way For Federal Housing Aid

Ohio Legislature Lifts Moratorium

COLUMBUS — (UP) — The Ohio legislature, which pioneered the nation 16 years ago in public housing projects, today lifted the 1942 court - imposed moratorium on federal-aid projects.

Eleven cities will gain $333,765 annually for municipal and school services when Gov Frank J. Lausche signs two bills approved by the Senate. The way will also be clear for other cities to authorize low cost housing.

The revenue was lost to cities when the state supreme court declared seven years ago that public housing projects were not tax exempt Federal housing officials took over control of the local projects at that time and ended subsidies in lieu of taxes

Rep George Marshall, R , Franklin, co-author of the bills, said that when the projects are returned to cities the following annual subsidies will be paid Columbus $38 000, Akron $23 000, Cincinnati $67,000, Cleveland $90,000, Dayton $41 000, Hamilton $3,500, Portsmouth $8 500, Toledo $27,000, Warren $7,000, Youngstown $12 000, and Zanesville $6,000

The two measures approved in the Senate, 26 to 2, grant tax exemption to metropolitan housing projects, give veterans preference as tenants and set the mixmum net income of tenants at $2,000 for a family plus $200 for each of three dependents.

Governor Lausche had demanded the public housing measures as companion bills to an urban redevelopment program earlier approved by the 98th

Representative Marshall declared that the shelter rent (payment in lieu of taxes) of $33,765 will be three times greater than the taxes which the housing properties yielded prior to their development by housing authorities

Voting against the public housing measures in the Senate yesterday were Sens David McK Ferguson, R , Guernsey, and C Stanley Mechem, R Athens

Fox and Pigs Have Plenty of Trouble As Truck Turns Over

PITTSBURGH — (UP) — Mr Fox and Messrs Pigs had their troubles yesterday as squeals mingled with impatient horn honking in the west end district

The uproar began when a huge trailer-tractor loaded with 107 pigs careened out of control down a grade The driver Dwight W Fox finally managed to wheel the truck after a sharp turn to avoid a head-on-collision with a trolley

But the sudden turn upset the truck and the riot was on A few pigs broke loose from their trapped quarters Five died in the crash And the remaining 100 or so squealed in dissonant chorus

The upset trailer snarled traffic and work - bound motorists added their horn-tooting to the cacophony

Fox said he loaded his trailer with the pigs when he began his trip from Lancaster, O , to Allentown Pa He said his motor cut off as he negotiated a steep bend and as a result his hydraulic brakes were shut off

Fireworks Show Will Top Arlin Field Program

City Promised Safe, Exciting July 4

Mansfielders who plan to stay home over the holiday week end are promised a safe but exciting evening at the community July 4 celebration at Arlin field

Highlight of the evening program, jointly sponsored by city park associations, will be a display of approximately $2,000 worth of fireworks

Tickets for the program may be obtained from members of any of the park associations, Frank Gillingham who with Harvey Fitzsimmons is in charge of ticket sales, said today

Gillingham said plans are being made to set up a booth on Main street for ticket sales the latter part of this week Mansfielders are urged to purchase tickets in advance in order to avoid the crowds at the gates the evening of the program

Gates at Arlin field will open at 6 p m Monday, the program will begin at 7 30 p m , and the fireworks display about 9 p m

Donald Cram, who is in charge of the program preceding the fireworks, said Kenny Brague's orchestra has been engaged to play background music for the program Cram is working with the City Recreation department on the program, the theme of which will be ' The Talk of the Town "

The program will last about an hour and a half and the fireworks display about an hour.

Lt John E Steel, of the Mansfield police department, will direct traffic and parking before and after the program He will be assisted by 40 members of the state highway auxiliary patrol

All seats in the north stands of the field will be reserved All children must have tickets in this section Reserved tickets will sell for 50 cents

Harvesting of Richland Wheat Crop Due to Start This Week

Big Yield Predicted In County

Combines to Go Into Action In 10 Days

Harvesting of Richland county's wheat crop is expected to get under way by the end of this week, and County Agent C. N. McGrew thinks the yield will be good

Wheat cutting will start first. Most of the grain is not expected to be ready for combines for a week or 10 days.

"The wheat looks good," McGrew said, "although some of it was knocked down by heavy rain storms." He said however, that he didn't think the rain did any serious damage.

The county agent warned fftelamers to adjust their combines before harvesting begins.

S G Huber, extension agricultural engineer at Ohio State university, said that last summer some farmers lost from two to four bushels of wheat per acre because of faulty combines.

Sources of losses are the cylinder, cutterbar, shoe, and rack, all of which should be properly adjusted for the grain and variety to be harvested, McGrew said

The cutterbar loss is usually the greatest and the cylinder loss the smallest Lack of grain left in the heads, Huber reported, is used too frequently as the indicator of efficient combining although it is merely an indication and many other factors are involved.

TEST LISTED

One way to check the amount of loss is to count the number of kernels found in one square foot of ground behind the combine. If 16 to 18 kernels are found the loss per acre will exceed two bushels.

Huber advised a careful check of all combine moving parts to determine the extent of wear a thorough tightening of all bolts, and a critical examination of all belts and pulleys

Another before combining caution is to make sure the grain is dry enough to combine, McGrew said. A good test is to get a few ounces of ammonium chloride at the drugstore Keep it in an air-tight container

To make the test, place a half-teaspoonful of the salty substance in a small, dry bottle and cork it tightly, and take it to the field. Shell out a handful of kernels from a head of grain and fill the bottle about two-thirds full, and cork again.

Shake the bottle 50 times, or for about half a minute, and watch the ammonium chloride.

If it still runs freely after the shaking, the grain is dry enough to harvest with a combine.

If the salt sticks to the side of the bottle, the grain will spoil in storage if harvested To make the test on soy beans, cut the beans in half with a knife before putting them in the bottle

Asks Cooling Period For Divorce Cases

COLUMBUS — (AP)— State senators want judges to wait three months before they hear divorce cases to give couples time to settle their differences.

"A waiting period will give them time to cool off," Sen Edwin F. Sawicki (D-Cuyahoga) told the Senate Monday night. "Divorce is public enemy No 1. There's one for every five marriages. We have a major duty to try to preserve our homes," Sawicki declared. Senators passed his bill 23 6

It requires judges to wait another two months after hearing cases before they can grant divorces The present waiting period is six weeks Judges can make divorces final immediately after hearings

Court Suspends Driver's License

The driver's license of Gilbert C. Templeton, 17, of 821 Yale drive, was suspended for 30 days Monday by Probate Judge Stuart H Cramer for unsafe operation of his auto

Templeton was involved in a collision with a car driven by Dora McLaughlin, Mansfield, R D. 2 at the intersection of Marion avenue and South Benton street The accident occurred as Templeton was passing a truck traveling in the same direction, police said

Crawford Pilot Battles Bugs

Dusts Crops From the Skies

By ROBERT SCHWEITZ

Air power has come to the farm Grant R Lust, of Chatfield, Crawford county is dusting crops to combat insect pests in the Richland county area

An Army pilot during the war Lust now flies with the 164th Air National Guard squadron based at Municipal airport

The air dusting is particularly effective on mosquito and fly control, he said. In western Ohio last year air dusting was used to combat polio in 18 towns. Ten days after the first application there were no new polio cases reported in the dusting area. Lust dusted for mosquito control in Norwalk last year.

The spittle bug which attacks hay and seed crops in the early spring can be controlled by aircraft The grasshoppers which are expected in great quantities this year also can be curbed with air dusting

Lust said air dusting is much faster than spraying crops from the ground He can do 100 acres in two and one half hours For insect control the time is even faster

Another advantage is that the duster need not ride over the crops and damage or ruin them, Lust said

The plane can dust eight to 10 acres per load Lust either lands at a nearby field and reloads from there or if he is near an airport he lands there

The dusting usually is done early in the morning because there is seldom a wind that early and the dew on the plants makes the dust stick better.

Besides the regular hay and seed crops, he has dusted potatoes, onions, and celery.

He also has a method of killing soy beans before they are completely ripe so they may be combined The chemical he uses actually kills the vine and causes the soy beans to ripen faster.

CROP DUSTER—From his Taylorcraft airplane, Grant R Lust, Chatfield, aids farmers protect their crops from insect pests and diseases He can dust 100 acres in two and one-half hours

Urges Control Of Raindrops

With the control of the raindrop many of the country's soil conservation problems can be solved according to a report released by the Friends of the Land

According to W D Ellison, soil conservationist, the impact of the raindrop on the surface of the soil may be the most critical factor in soil erosion and water conservation

"The violent, unseen erosive action of the falling raindrop has been making a mockery of much of our conservation work," Ellison explained "Raindrops cause splash erosion. Our principal defense against them is cover crops and mulches"

"With the proper raindrop control incorporated into our conservation practices, many of the present problems of soil destruction and water waste will fade to practical insignificance," the expert predicted

Third Degree On Way Out

WASHINGTON —(UP)— State and local police were on notice today that mental torture and physical violence are both taboo in getting confessions to convict suspects

But they were told to go ahead and use evidence turned up by illegal search if it is needed to get a conviction in a state court

Federal officers, however, were warned that no conviction will stand up in a federal court if won on evidence obtained by illegal search

These notices were posted by the Supreme Court as the justices took off on a three-month summer vacation

Sees Threat To Meadows

Too much straw, stubble or weed residue on a meadow can be damaging to grass and hay crops, according to M A Bachtell, agronomist at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment station in Wooster

Injury to meadows is likely to occur where too much residue is left on the ground after the harvesting of the small grain with which the meadow seeding was made, he said.

This injury is related more to the subsequent dying of the red clover than it is to alfalfa or timothy damage continues Bachtell Experiments at the Ohio Station indicate that some of the most profitable hours of the entire year may be those spent in clipping and removing the straw and stubble sometime during the month after combining

Grasshopper Plague Forecast For Sections of State

"Grasshoppers are expected to be more abundant than usual this summer," T H Parks, extension entomologist at Ohio State university, warned today

He said in many places in the state they will have to be fought with insecticides.

However, Parks explained, the severity of the grasshopper problem can't accurately be forecast until all the eggs are hatched

Grasshoppers can be controlled by spraying or dusting with chlordane or toxaphene, or by using a poisoned bran bait, he pointed out

The young grasshoppers will be making their appearance in late June, the entomologist explained, but are seldom noticed until they become large enough to migrate from the hatching grounds to cultivated crops in adjoining fields Injury to legume seed crops may be severe, and other crops attacked by the migrating insects include corn, soybeans, tomatoes, pastures, gardens, young fruit trees and nursery plantings

Water delivered to the city of Rome by the great system of aqueducts in the First Century A D has been estimated at about 92,000,000 gallons a day.

Cleveland Climbs Back Into Third Place

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

DON SWEEGAN, the Fredericktown basketball coach, rates a tryout with the Cleveland Indians this week. . . . The 23-year-old star plays with several area baseball teams but his work with the Galion Merchants prompted the tryout. . . . In three games with Galion, Sweegan pounded four home runs, three triples, three doubles and two singles. . . . Scout Bill Bradley fixed up the session in Cleveland where Don will perform under the watchful eyes of Indian officials. . . . Sweegan captained the Harvard baseball team for two years and starred in the 1946 east-west college game. . . . He graduated from Wooster college. . . . Don is a 6-2, 185-pound shortstop.

★

SARA BOSH, Route 4, is strictly partial to the Cleveland Indians. . . . In voting for her all-star American league team, Sara named eight members of the Cleveland Indians. . . . She had Mickey Vernon, Joe Gordon, Kenny Keltner and Lou Boudreau in the infield, Jim Hegan behind the bat and Dale Mitchell, Larry Doby and Bob Kennedy as outfielders. . . . Sara then snuck Washington's Eddie Robinson into her National league selections at third base. . . . Robinson, a first baseman, was with Cleveland last year.

★

ONE OF THE surprising things about the poll is the support being accorded Lou Boudreau for shortstop. . . . The Mansfield version of the balloting has Lou behind Eddie Joost and Vern Stephens. . . . He's in the same place nationally. . . . Not bad for a fellow who is second-string on his own ball club. . . . Goes to show that the public goes along with what was not what is. . . . The only Cleveland players heading for all-star berths appear to be Joe Gordon, Mickey Vernon and Dale Mitchell. . . . Barring a late surge of voting, none of the trio will make the starting lineups, although they will be on the squad.

★

THREE NEW YORK Giant outfielders seem sure to be on the National squad. . . . Willard Marshall will probably start with Whitey Lockman and Bob Thomson in the reserve corps. . . . Ray Boone and Ted Williams both attended Hoover high school in San Diego. . . . Sam Jethroe, Brooklyn farm hand, stole 35 bases in the first 58 games for Montreal in the International league. . . . PeeWee Reese, the Brooklyn ace, recently fired a 77 over a Cincy golf course—playing in his bare feet, too. . . . PeeWee says all Kentuckians play golf sans shoes.

Joe Wells Tops Seniors Tourney

RYE, N. Y. —(AP)— Joe Wells of East Liverpool, Ohio, moves over to the Apawamis club today for the final 18 holes of the National Seniors golf championship sporting a three stroke lead over his closest pursuer.

The one time amateur star, who gained the quarter finals of the U. S. Amateur championship some years ago, blasted a one-under-par 70 in the opening round yesterday at Blind Brook club. With a field of some 350 senior players, all 55 years and older, play was divided between the two clubs.

Sanders Tosses In Grid Sponge

NEW YORK — (INS) — Orban (Spec) Sanders, former star back of the New York Yankees of the all-America conference, has quit pro football for good.

Sanders wrote the New York club:

"I'm in good physical shape but I want to stay that way. I had a knee operation last winter. It proved successful but I'm not certain it will stand up under another rough season."

Wants Title Bout

TIJUANA, MEX. — (UP) — William Collier, executive general manager of the Tijuana Greyhound club, today offered to stage a heavyweight title bout here between newly crowned NBA champ Ezzard Charles and the winner of the Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savold fight.

Bob Lemon Knocks Off Tigers, 4-2

CLEVELAND — (INS) — The Indians basked in the warm and pleasant confines of third place in the American league today, and defied one and all to do something about it.

Bob Lemon, Mickey Vernon and Bob Kennedy supplied the punch last night which enabled the Indians to rap Detroit, 4-2, before 50,892 "homecoming" fans at Cleveland stadium, to take over third.

Gene Beardon and Bob Feller were the "big guns" to be called on in tonight's twi-night Cleveland-Detroit doubleheader to keep the Redskins in the third spot.

Lemon's victory, his eighth of the season against only three losses, moved the tribe ahead of both the Tigers and the Boston Red Sox last night, and marked Cleveland's return to third for the first time since May 14.

The California right-hander was in top-notch form as the Indians racked up their 12th win in their last 16 games. He scattered eight hits effectively, and would have had a shutout but for a home run by Detroit's Johnny Lipon with one aboard in the second inning.

VERNON HITS ONE

Vernon supplied Lemon with a two-run working margin in the first frame. With Ray Boone on third base as the result of a single, an error and some fancy baserunning, Mickey clouted one just over the fence in right field.

Detroit tied it up in the second on Lipon's round-tripper, but Cleveland broke the deadlock in the last of the second and produced an insurance run in the sixth.

Doubles by Kennedy and Lemon accounted for the second-frame marker. Vernon opened the sixth with a single, stole second and eventually scored on Kennedy's one-baser.

Virgil "Fire" Trucks, Detroit's ace, was charged with the loss, his fifth of the season against 10 wins, and needed help from Reliefer Paul "Dizzy" Trout.

Lemon, meanwhile, never was in trouble after the second. He fanned four and walked none while holding the Tigers completely in check.

Bearden was expected to hurl the first game of tonight's twin bill. Feller is slated for action in the nightcap.

Ted Gray and Hal Newhouser are to hurl for the Tigers — Gray probably against Bearden and Newhouser versus Feller.

Bearden will be seeking his sixth win against five losses, while Feller, who now has won three in a row, will attempt to improve on his 4-6 mark.

Sport Center Ties For Top

Ohio Sport Center moved into a three-way tie for first place in the Girls' Softball league last night as it scored its third straight victory by a 29-2 margin over Spudnuts.

Sport Center, Lumbermens and Westinghouse all are undefeated in three starts.

The winners took advantage of Spudnut errors to score in every inning yesterday although getting only 12 hits. Nussio led the attack with three hits in four times at bat.

Wooster Lumber 9 Blasts Gorman-Rupp Easily, 8-0

Bobby Regula failed again last night in his third attempt to win a game in the Ohio Major Softball league.

The rifle-armed Gorman-Rupp hurler was tagged for 13 hits as his mates were handcuffed and fell before Wooster Lumber, 8-0, at Wooster. It was Gorman-Rupp's third defeat against two victories in league play.

The Pumpers got only two hits off Bessinger, the Wooster hurler. One of these was a triple by Regula, the other a single by Dale Uhlich.

Gorman-Rupp returns to familiar soil tonight to play host to Willard Elks in a non-league game at 8:30 p. m. It will be seeking its eighth victory in 13 starts.

Bobby will try again to get back on the effective-pitching trail but will have a tough one for his opponent. He and Willard hurler Jim Smith battled for 16 innings last year before settling for a 1-1 tie. Both gave up a run in the first frame and then pitched 15 scoreless innings.

Legion Junior Team To Play Tourney Game

The Mansfield American legion juniors are to meet Plymouth at 5 p. m. today at Blue Goose diamond in the "first" game of the final playoff series for the county championship.

The two teams met at Plymouth Sunday with Plymouth winning, 15-2, but the game was ruled out on a protest by Mansfield manager Dewey Durant. Mansfield catcher Ken McCally and a Plymouth player were banished from the game for arguing and then the Plymouth player allowed to re-enter because of a lack of substitution.

The tournament is a double-elimination affair with the second game to be played at 5 p. m. tomorrow at Shelby. A third game will be played if necessary. Mansfield eliminated Shelby with two defeats over the weekend.

Studebakers Take First Round Crown

Gibson Studebaker maintained its lead over the News-Journal A Golf league as the first half season came to a close last night.

Led by Old Reliable Joe Mayer, Gibson's recorded 52½ points in the final session to finish with 416½. Myers Supply came in second with 380. Mayer had a three-under 33 last night for 15 points, while the three and four men for the team—Nick Kompenovich and Jake Gaubatz, each had 37.

Three other 33's were recorded. Ted Etzel had one for Hall's Shamrock Market, Al Hager, of Lee's Lunch, had one for the second day in a row, and Jerry Rosenberg was three under for Penn Auto.

Pete Zeides was two under with 34, eGne Lichtle, Arnie Adams and Jim Musille had 35's and Pete Thoma, Ted Muntan, Grant Hannewald and Rollie Racheal finished with even par 36's.

Hall's Market moved up to third on the last day of the race with 362 points, Blue Goose Tavern came in fourth with 342½, Ideal Billiards, fifth, 335; Drive-In-Ette, sixth, 333½; Penn Auto, seventh, 327½; PD's Bar, eighth, 263½; Komito's Clothes, ninth, 261, and Lee's Lunch, last, with 219½.

Jerry Rosenberg won a new ball last night for an eagle on the par five fifth hole. Three new balls each went to the four men who scored the most points in their positions over the last three weeks.

Joe Mayer topped the number one men with 50 points, Arnia Adams led the number two men with 52, Nick Komjenovich had 47½ to pace number three, and Chuck Schlegel topped the fourth spot with 45.

Eddie Waitkus 'Near Perfect'

CHICAGO —(UP)— Frist baseman Eddie Waitkus packed his bags in preparation for leaving Illinois Masonic hospital today in "almost perfect" shape after recovering from a bullet wound inflicted by a lovesick girl fan.

The Philadelphia Phillies star expected one last physical checkup before doctors released him.

He assured first assistant state's attorney Edwin Breen that he would appear Thursday at the arraignment of Ruth Steinhagen, 19, on charges of attempting to kill him.

A psychiatrist has found the girl mentally unsound.

Cooper Sheds No Tears For Leo Durocher

PITTSBURGH —(AP)— Walker Cooper is shedding no tears for the manager he left behind—Lippy Leo Durocher.

The 34-year-old Cincinnati catcher is convinced the scrappy New York Giant manager wanted to be rid of him. He indicates the feeling was mutual.

"We never had words," Cooper said today. "But I always felt he never wanted me around and it was just a question of time when he would get rid of me."

Cooper was traded to the Reds June 13 in a straight player deal for catcher Ray Muller. A few days later, the Giants sold catcher Mickey Livingston to the Boston Brayes.

"I thought Livingston was a better catcher than the two fellows (Mueller and Wes Westrum) that Durocher has now," Cooper continued. "I don't know why he got rid of him."

He added with a twinkle in his eye: "somebody said it was because Livingston went around with me. I just wasn't very popular with Leo."

Of Durocher's managerial methods, the big catcher said: "I don't think he uses the right tactics in handling players. You can get on some fellows and help them. You get on others and you hurt them. Durocher jumps on everyone."

The Giants are currently in fifth place and the Reds, in sixth. Lest his criticism sound like sour grapes, Cooper wants in made plain he's plenty happy with the Reds—and with manager Bucky Walters.

"You can do a better job for someone like Walters who has confidence in you," Cooper explained.

Isaly Dairy Nine Draws Tough Foe

Second division teams in the American Softball league will get a chance to become heroes today as each will tangle with one of the three leading teams.

The young Isaly Dairy nine draws the biggest assignment as it is to go against Liederkranz, undefeated league leader, at Johns park. Liederkranz has won four straight while Isaly's has only one victory against three defeats.

Farm Tools, winless in four games, has its work cut out as it tangles with Veterans of Foreign Wars at Prospect park. Disabled American Veterans, also only a one-time winner, is to play Sons of Herman at North Lake park. Todd's Jewelry holds a bye.

Should Liederkranz lose and VFW and Sons of Herman win, the three would be tied for first place. On the other hand, a victory for Liederkranz and loss for the other two would clinch the first half title for the leaders.

One Girls' league game will be played as Ohio Sport Center goes after its third straight against Spudnut shop at John Todd park.

In the Recreation "slo-ball" league, News-Journal will meet Western and Southern Insurance at Farm Tools field.

Joe DiMaggio Makes Auspicious 1949 Debut

Yank Clipper Bangs Homer and Single

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK —(UP)— Joe (the pro) DiMaggio was his old magnificent self today which could mean that the Yankees may be ready to make a runaway of the American league race.

At least such a conclusion is logical. For without Joe the pro, the Yankees were able to win 41 of their first 65 games for a comfortable first-place lead of 4½ games They had more consistency, more bench depth, and most of the time better pitching than any other club

Now, with the tremendous psychological lift they are bound to get with baseball's most illustrious player back in action, they should be tougher than ever.

Joltin'Joe provided the measure of difference between victory and defeat in his first big league ball game of 1949 last night in Boston when he hit a two-run homer, a single, and saved a 5 to 4 victory over the Red Sox in the hinth with one of his personally patented "run-a-mile" catches of a smash by Ted Williams to end the game.

It was his second inning single which started the Yankees off to a conquest of the red-hot Sox, who had won 10 of their previous 11 games After a walk to Johnny Lindell, Hank Bauer swatted a three-run homer and the Yankees were ahead to stay DiMaggio then propelled his own homer with a man aboard in the second inning and those tallies proved to be the margin of victory.

Bobby Doerr homered for Boston and the Sox threatened to tie it up against Allie Reynolds in the ninth when Matt Batts tripled and pinch-hitter Birdie Tebbetts singled him home Then Joe Page came in and retired the side, although DiMaggio had to go like the gazelle boy on his repaired heel to make the game-ending out

SURPRISE PACKAGE

The second place Athletics won an easy 6 to 1 decision from the Senators in Washington as Alex Kellner, their surprise pitching star, hurled seven-hit ball to win this 11th game and fifth in a row.

At Cleveland, the Indians won a 4 to 2 decision from Detroit in which Bob Lemon pitched eight-hit ball to win his eighth victory and Mickey Vernon hit a two-run homer Johnny Lipon hit his first major league homer for the Tigers, also with a man on base

Jerry Priddy, back after a brief layoff due to a pulled leg muscle, drove in the winning run earlier hit a homer as the in the 12th with a single and earlier hit a homer as the Browns topped the White Sox. 7 to 6 at Chicago Dick Kokos also homered for St Louis

Duke Snider's three - run homer gave the Dodgers a 5 to 3 victory over the Phillies in which Preacher Roe struck out nine batters in winning his seventh game. Del Ennis previously had tied the score for Philadelphia at 2-all with a two-run homer.

Lefty Howie Pollet kept the Cardinals just a game behind Brooklyn when he pitched an eight-hit, 5 to 0 shoutout over the Cubs. It was his second shutout and his ninth victory of the season. He struck out five batters and didn't walk a man. Red Schoendienst was the most productive of the Cardinal batters with a two-run double.

A home run and three-hit pitching by Clint Hartung gave the Giants a 2 to 1 triumph over the Braves at New York Hartung pitched no-hit ball until the sixth inning when the Braves got their only run on two scratch singles and an error. Sid Gordon also homered for New York

The Reds and Pirates were rained out at Pittsburgh.

American Ace Carries Hopes In Net Meet

WIMBLEDON, Eng. — (UP) — Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., the only remaining Yank in men's singles, carried the American hopes into the semi-finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships today against Eric Sturgess, the steady South African retriever.

And in women's singles, top-seeded Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif, and Mrs Margaret Osborne Du Pont of Belevue, Del. The U. S amateur queen, were favored to turn back British opponenets in the quarter-finals to make it an all-American round-of-four.

Miss Brough played Mrs. Molly Blair and Mrs Du Pont met Mrs. Betty Hilton Mrs Patricia Canning Todd of La Jolla, Calif, and Mrs Helen Pedersen Rihbany of Boston, already were in the semis.

A crowd of 15,000 was expected to pack the stands around the famed center court to watch crew-cut Schroeder, the tournament favorite, match his powerhouse strokes with the cool methodical game of 28-year-old Sturgess, a finalist in the U. S. national singles tourney last year.

America's two prize men's doubles teams and another Yank teamed with a foreign partner swept into the semi-finals yesterday The top-seeded pair of Schroeder and Gardnar Mulloy of Miami, Fla, eliminated Tony Mottram and Geoff Paish of England 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, 10-8, third-seeded Frank Parker and Richard (Pancho) Gonzales of Los Angeles whipped Italy's Gianni Cucelli and Marcello Del Bello, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3; and Budge Patty of Los Angeles and Sturgess upset the defending champions, Bromwich and Frank Sedgman, 6-8, 6-3, 7-5, 3-6. 6 3

Minors Attracting New Fan Record

COLUMBUS —(UP)— Minor league baseball attendance for the first 30 days of 1949 is slightly higher than the record breaking course set last year, the National Association of Professional baseball leagues said today.

President George M. Trautman said a spot checked showed a net gain of 117,321 for 188 of the association's 448 clubs They represented 27 of the 59 leagues from class AA to class D.

TALLYING UP—Adding up their scores as the News-Journal A Golf league closed its first half season last night are George Zimmerman, left, Ennis Walker, and Ray Oakes The A league will open its second half next week with all teams starting even. First and second half champions are to meet at the end of the season for the title (News-Journal Staff Photo).

Luke Appling Not Going Home To Retire From Ball

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

CHICAGO —(INS)— Luke Appling was in Philadelphia with the White Sox when he got the phone call. It was from his wife in Atlanta

"When you coming home?" she wanted to know.

Luke was obliging "Any time you say," he said

'I mean the papers," Mrs Luke said

"What papers?"

"The Atlanta papers. They say you've retired"

"Oh," said Luke, who hadn't heard that one "I have, have I?"

He went out the next day and played 18 innings against the Philadelphia Athletics That was last Sunday.

The gentleman is 42 years old, and not the spryest of shortstops, but he needs exactly 35 more ball games to break the all-time shortstopping record, held by Rabbit Maranville, and that's just what Luke is going to do — break the record.

Jack Onslow, the manager of the White Sox isn't too disturbed about the prospect of having Luke appear in 35 more games for the Sox He hasn't got anybody better which makes it easy

Maranville had 2,153 games at short, and Luke had 2,057 going into this season Onslow doesn't particularly like to play him at night or in second games of doubleheaders any more, but he's doing both

Appling's slowdown has not been marked, but it's been noticed Guys who watch the White Sox day in and day out say he doesn't get the jump on the ball the way he used to And it's been observed, further, that "Ol' Ben" has been letting good balls go by at the plate

In Washington the latest eastern trip, Appling was ordered out of a game by the umpire for the third time in his 19-year major league lifetime. He'd spent just a little too much time arguing with plate Umpire Bill Summers on a called third strike, and when he finally walked away he said something Summers didn't like over his shoulder

Baseball Writer Dan Desmond asked Luke about it later

"All I said," reported Luke, whose eyes ain't what they used to be, "is that I didn't think his eyes were what they used to be."

Ted Williams High In Poll

CHICAGO —(UPM(— Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder, today set the pace as individual vote getter in the 1949 all-star poll which closes at midnight

He led in the 1948 voting as well

The poll to determine fans' choices for positions in the annual game began June 10 The game will be played in Ebbets Field, Brooklyn on July 12 Balloting ends at midnight tonight Final results will be announced Saturday

Williams held 1,418,327 votes to date, leading Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers, the next high choice for any position who has 1,332,403.

Miller Hits Not So Good, Rates As Spark of Phils

By TOM R. BRISLIN

PHILADELPHIA —(INS)— It's hard to imagine a 195 hitter as the sparkplug of a pennant-contending major league ball club, but second baseman Eddie Miller of the Phillies is regarded as just that

The veteran pivot man's puny batting average, says Manager Eddie Sawyer and the Phillie players, shouldn't be accepted as a true gauge of Miller's value to the team, currently in third place in the National league and only a breath behind the St Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers.

Miller, declares Sawyer, is the "real key"—the man who has held the Phillies' inexperienced infield together

In fact, Sawyer's decision to convert Miller from a shortstop to a second sacker is now being regarded as a stroke of managerial genius.

Miller, the regular shortstop in 1948, couldn't win the job this season because of the spectacular play of young Gran Hamner, up from the Phillies' farm system.

Minus a top-grade second baseman following the trading of Emil Verban to the Chicago Cubs, Sawyer regarded Miller as too valuable to keep on the bench, and talked him into trying for second

Eddie had never played the pivot bag, but willingly gave it a try in order to keep his job

Sawyer's confidence in the veteran was justified from the start Miller's play at second has been on the sensational side all season

In fact, Sawyer thinks Eddie would now be one of the game's greatest second basemen if he had started his career playing that position.

And don't let that .195 batting average fool you too much, either, Sawyer warns. Miller isn't exactly a bust at the plate and is highly regarded as a clutch hitter
